CHAPTER I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§1. Purpose

The purpose of these Enforcement Rules is to stipulate the terms of reference and the matters necessary for the enforcement of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation.

§2. Professional Investors

“A professional investor stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in [§2(1)15] of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation (hereinafter referred to as “the Regulation”) shall refer to a person who falls under any of the following subparagraphs:

1. Professional investors under subparagraphs 1 and 2 of Article 10(1) of the Enforcement Decree of the Financial Investment Services and Capital Markets Act (hereinafter referred to as “the Enforcement Decree of the Act”);
2. Professional investors under subparagraphs 1 through 10 and 13 through 16 of Article 10(2) of the Enforcement Decree of the Act. Provided that, from among the financial investment companies under subparagraph 8 of Article 10(2) of the Enforcement Decree of the Act, the trust business entity, discretionary investment business entity and investment advisory business entity shall be excluded;
3. Professional investors under subparagraphs 3 and 10 through 13 of Article 10(3) of the Enforcement Decree of the Act;
4. Business development collective investment vehicle under subparagraph 1 of [§85-2] of the Regulation; and [March 16, 2026]
5. As the professional investors equivalent to those noted in subparagraphs 1 through 4, those professional investors for whom the Korea Exchange (hereinafter referred to as “the Exchange”) deems it appropriate to exclude the shares held by them when calculating the number of shares owned the largest shareholder under [§2(1)13] of the Regulation (hereinafter referred to as “the largest shareholder”) in consideration of the nature of the relevant investors and the purpose of their shareholding, etc. (Amended on March 16, 2026)

§3. Stocks Issued by Capital Increase without Consideration

“The stocks issued by capital increase without consideration specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the latter part of [§2(1)18] of the Regulation shall refer to capital increase without consideration in accordance with any of the following subparagraphs: (Amended on March 17)

1. The capitalization of reserve pursuant to Article 461 of the Commercial Act; and
2. The transfer into capital pursuant to Article 30 of the Assets Revaluation Act.

§4. Determination Criteria for Foreign Holding Company and Foreign Holding Company Located in Korea

The aggregated value of stocks of the foreign subsidiaries and the total assets of foreign holding companies or foreign holding companies located in Korea under [§2(1)25 and §2(1)26] of the Regulation shall be based on the aggregated value and the total assets as the end of the latest business year. Provided that, in cases where documents that confirm the current value of stocks and the total assets are submitted after the end of the latest business year, the aggregated value and the total assets as of the date of the concerned documents may be accepted in lieu thereof.

§5. Eligible Foreign Securities Markets

“An overseas securities market specified in the Enforcement Rules” in [§2(1)33] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following securities markets:

1. NYSE (New York Stock Exchange);
2. NASDAQ Stock Market;
3. Euronext;
4. Tokyo Stock Exchange;
5. London Stock Exchange;
6. Deutsche Börse;
7. Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing;
8. Singapore Exchange;
9. Australian Securities Exchange;
10. Toronto Stock Exchange; and
11. Other overseas securities markets that are recognized by the Exchange in view of such factors as the reliability, liquidity, and transparency of the market.

§6. Calculation Methods of Base Market Capitalization

“The amount determined according to the methods stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” under [§2(1)34(b)] of the Regulation shall refer to the amount calculated by the method in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Case of listing stocks or DRs of foreign stocks issued by a company listed on an overseas securities market: The amount obtained by multiplying the arithmetic average of the closing prices for the past ninety (90) days from the listing application date of the stocks (referring to the underlying stocks for DRs of foreign stocks) listed on the overseas securities market by the total number of outstanding shares as of the listing application date.
2. Case of listing by making public offering both in Korea and abroad at the same time: The amount determined by multiplying the lower price between the primary offering price and the secondary offering price by the number of stocks to be listed as of the listing application date; and
3. Other cases: The amount determined by the methods that the Exchange sets separately.

§7. Provincial Venture Companies

“Venture companies located in the provinces stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§2(1)38(a)] of the Regulation shall refer to the venture companies whose head offices and places of main business are located in the areas other than Seoul Metropolitan City, Incheon Metropolitan City and Gyeonggi Province.

§8. Accounting Standards for Foreign Subsidiaries

(1) “The matters set forth in the Enforcement Rules” in [§3(3)] of the Regulation shall refer to the matters specified in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Details of the differences between the accounting standards adopted by the foreign subsidiaries and the accounting standards noted in each subparagraph of [§3(2)] of the Regulation (hereinafter referred to as the “comparative accounting standards” in this paragraph);
2. Effects of the details noted in subparagraph 1 on the financial statements of the foreign subsidiaries; and
3. Financial statements of the latest business year prepared in the format of comparison by applying the comparative accounting standards to the foreign subsidiaries.

(2) The listing applicant shall submit to the Exchange a document stating the matters noted in each subparagraph of paragraph (1) along with the audit report of the foreign subsidiaries concerned.

§8-2. Applicable Standards for Companies Issuing Multiple Voting Stocks

(1) Except as otherwise provided in these Enforcement Rules, in cases where the largest shareholder of a company that has issued multiple voting stocks (hereinafter referred to as “multiple voting stocks”) pursuant to Article 16-11, Paragraph 1 of the Special Act on the Promotion of Venture Businesses (hereinafter referred to as the “Venture Business Act”) is different from the largest voting holder (hereinafter referred to as “the largest voting holder”) under [§2(2)13-2(a)] of the Regulation, the terms “largest shareholder” and “largest shareholder, etc.” shall be applied by including “the largest voting holder” or “the largest voting holder, etc.” respectively.

(2) When preparing documents in accordance with the Annex Form, etc., of these Enforcement Rules regarding companies that have issued multiple voting stocks, the applicable standards pursuant to paragraph (1) of the Regulations and paragraph (1) shall be reflected.

[July 1, 2026]

§9. Financial Documents

“Financial statements specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the former part of [§6(3)] of the Regulation shall refer to financial documents among the documents for applying for the preliminary listing review in [Annex 1].

§10. Notification of Result of Preliminary Listing Review

(1) In accordance with the proviso to [§6(4)] of the Regulation, in cases where any of the followings occurs, the Exchange shall notify the result of preliminary listing review within thirty (30) days (based on business days; hereinafter the same shall apply in this Article) from the date when the application for preliminary listing review is received. Provided that, this provision shall not apply to the listing applicant pursuant to [§6(4)2] of the Regulation. (Amended on December 28, 2023)

1. Preliminary listing reviews for prompt-transfer companies pursuant to [§31(1)] of the Regulation;
2. Preliminary listing reviews for large-sized corporations pursuant to [§32(1)] of the Regulation;
3. Preliminary listing reviews for listing after merger pursuant to [§75(4)]; and
4. Preliminary listing reviews for innovative technology companies falling under [§28(1)1(a)(v)].

(2) “Cases specified in the Enforcement Rules” in [§6(5)3] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following cases: (Amended on March 9, 2023)

1. Case where an official challenge has been filed against a member of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Listing Committee”)
2. Case where additional data is requested and reviewed to confirm important matters related to financial status, business activities, governance structure, internal control system, etc. of applicants for preliminary listing review;
3. Case where the number of applicants for preliminary listing review sharply increases in a short period of time, where the deliberation of the Listing Committee is extended, or where it is necessary to finalize the financial statements;
4. Case where, considering the deliberation schedule of the Listing Committee, the Exchange determines that it is difficult to secure a sufficient time for review during the period between the application date for preliminary listing review and the meeting date of the Listing Committee. In such cases, the notification of the result of preliminary listing review may be postponed within a period of fifteen (15) days. (Amended on July 9, 2025)
5. Case where a listing sponsor of a foreign company or foreign holding company located in Korea, to which a quantitative cause of delisting or a cause of delisting subsequent to the listing maintenance review has occurred within one (1) year from the initial listing date, makes an arrangement for initial listing of stocks of another foreign company or foreign holding company located in Korea within one (1) year from the day when the concerned cause for delisting was confirmed through public disclosures, etc. (based on the application date for preliminary listing review). In such cases, the notification of the result of preliminary listing review may be postponed within a period of one (1) month.

(3) Outstanding export companies and any registered or designated corporations in the K-OTC Market which are prioritized for the review pursuant to [§6(6)] of the Regulation shall be as follows: (Amended on April 29, 2022)

1. Outstanding export companies: Venture companies whose exports account for 50/100 or more of its total sales as of the end of the latest business year; and
2. Registered or designated corporations in K-OTC Market: Corporations that meet the requirement of each subparagraph of [§26(5)].

(4) Pursuant to [§6(6)] of the Regulation, the Exchange shall preferentially review the listing applicant in each of the following subparagraphs within the scope specified in each subparagraph. Provided that, this provision shall not apply to the cases where the notification of the result of preliminary listing review may be made within the period mentioned in [§6(4)] of the Regulation:

1. Registered or designated corporations in K-OTC Market pursuant to paragraph (3)2:

Within 10/100 of the corporations subject to the following review; and

2. Provincial venture companies pursuant to [§7] or outstanding export companies under paragraph (3)1: Within 20/100 of the corporations subject to the following review.

§11. Selection of Specialized Assessment Institution and Specialized Assessment Procedures, etc.

(Amended on December 28, 2023)

(1) The Exchange shall appoint a specialized assessment institution with expertise to assess technical capacity, etc. of listing applicants pursuant to [§7(1)] of the Regulation.

(2) A company that falls under any of the following subparagraphs shall undergo an assessment for technology, etc. by the specialized assessment institution designated by requesting the designation of a specialized assessment institution to the Exchange: (Amended on December 28, 2023)

1. A company that wishes to be listed as an innovative technology company (excluding the innovative technology companies falling under [§28(1)2] and [§67(1)2]). In such cases, the company shall go through an assessment by the specialized assessment institution before the application date of preliminary listing review; and
2. Other companies that the Exchange deems that an assessment by the specialized assessment institution is necessary for the purpose of listing review.

(3) The service fees to be paid to the specialized assessment institution shall be borne by the concerned company in the case of paragraph (2)1, and by the Exchange in the case of paragraph (2)2.

(4) Only in the case where the company that has gone through the assessment for technology, etc. pursuant to paragraph (2)1 applies for the preliminary listing review within six (6) months from the date of notification on the assessment result, the result of concerned assessment shall be valid.

(5) In addition to the provisions of paragraphs (1) through (4), the matters necessary for the selection of specialized assessment institutions, specialized assessment procedures and assessment ratings shall be established separately by the Exchange.

§12. Operation of Expert Meeting, etc.

(Amended on December 28, 2023)

(1) Pursuant to [§7(1)] of the Regulation, the Exchange may establish and operate expert meetings for the purpose of carrying out a technical analysis of the industry to which the applicant for preliminary listing review belongs, obtaining professional and objective information on the concerned industry and reflecting review opinions.

(2) In cases where it deems necessary to obtain advice on technological prowess or growth potential, etc. of a listing applicant, the Exchange may convene an expert meeting.

(3) The Exchange shall separately specify the matters necessary for the establishment and operation of the expert meeting pursuant to paragraph (1). (Amended on December 28, 2023)

§13. Invalidation of Result of Preliminary Listing Review

(1) “Cases stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in [§8(1)7] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following:

1. Case of issuing stocks, etc. by a third-party allotment from the application date for the preliminary listing review to the day before the listing day. Provided that, this provision shall not apply to cases where the listing sponsor intends to acquire stocks to fulfill the investment obligations pursuant to [§13(5)] of the Regulation; and
2. Other cases that the Exchange deems necessary for public interest and investor protection.

(2) In cases where a listing applicant re-applies for a preliminary listing review pursuant to [§8(4)] of the Regulation, the application form for each listing type specified in [Annex 1] and attachments thereto shall be submitted. Provided that, the submission of such documents may be omitted in case where the documents are identical to those submitted for the preliminary listing review.

§14. Procedures for Filing an Objection to Result of Preliminary Listing Review, etc.

(1) A listing applicant who raises an objection to the result of preliminary listing review pursuant to [§10(1)] of the Regulation shall submit the following documents to the Exchange through its listing sponsor:

1. A statement of grounds for objection to the decision of the Exchange and documentary evidence;
2. An opinion letter of the listing sponsor; and
3. Other documents that the Exchange deems necessary in relation to the objection.

(2) The Exchange shall convene the KOSDAQ Market Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Market Committee”) within fifteen (15) days (based on business days; hereinafter the same shall apply in this Article) from the date when the documents pursuant to paragraph (1) were submitted. In such cases, the Exchange shall grant at least one (1) opportunity to the representative of the concerned listing applicant to express his/her opinion. (Amended on July 9, 2025)

(3) The Exchange shall notify the listing applicant of the outcome of deliberation within three (3) days from the date of deliberation and decision by the Market Committee under paragraph (2). In such cases, the listing applicant may not file another objection to the decision of the Market Committee.

§15. Fulfillment of Obligations of Listing Sponsors, etc.

(1) In the process of corporate due diligence pursuant to [§13(1)] of the Regulation, a listing sponsor shall receive a confirmation letter, which proves that the financial situation of the listing applicant has been stated in a true and accurate manner based on facts, from the representative director, etc. of the listing applicant.

(2) A listing sponsor who has arranged an initial listing (limited to an initial listing of common stocks or foreign stocks), backdoor listing, or listing after merger pursuant to the main sentence of [§13(4)] of the Regulation shall submit a business analysis report of the concerned KOSDAQ-listed corporation to the Exchange at least once for each half-year period for three (3) years from the date of listing and post the report on the website of the listing sponsor. Provided that, in cases where the period from the listing date to the last day of the semi-annual period to which the listing date belongs is less than two (2) months, this provision shall be applied from the first day of the following half-year period of the semi-annual period to which the date of listing belongs.

(3) In cases where the Exchange confirmed that a listing sponsor has violated the obligation under paragraph (2), the Exchange may post such fact on the website, etc. of the Exchange.

(4) In cases where a listing sponsor acquires stocks (including DRs of foreign stocks; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph) pursuant to [§13(5)] of the Regulation, the requirements in each of the following subparagraphs shall be satisfied:

1. Acquisition method: The stocks issued by way of private placement shall be acquired;
2. Acquisition time: The relevant stocks shall be acquired during the period from the application date for preliminary listing review to the application date for initial listing; and
3. Acquisition quantity: In cases where the listing sponsor acquires a remaining quantity in accordance with the underwriting agreement entered into with the listing applicant as no one acquired some stocks offered for primary offering or secondary offering, such acquisition quantity shall be included.

(5) “In the case where the listing sponsor falls under the reasons prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§13(5)1(b)] of the Regulation shall refer to the case where a technology growth company for which the listing sponsor arranged listing within the past three (3) years as of the date of application for preliminary listing review has been designated as an investment attention issue or administrative issue within two (2) years after listing or the case where the technology growth company falls under formal requirements for delisting or a reason for delisting due to the listing maintenance review. [December 28, 2023] (Previous paragraph (5) moved to paragraph (6) on December 28, 2023)

(6) Pursuant to [§13(8)] of the Regulation, a listing sponsor shall post a business model evaluation report on the websites, etc. of the Exchange and the listing sponsor within seven (7) days from the date of notification on the approval for the preliminary listing review. Provided that, any confidential matters, etc. of the concerned company, which are included in the business model evaluation report, may be excluded from the posting in consultation with the Exchange. (Moved from paragraph (5), Previous paragraph (6) moved to paragraph (7) on December 28, 2023)

(7) Pursuant to [§13(9)] of the Regulation, a listing sponsor shall post a report on corporate continuity in [Annex Form 10-2] on the websites, etc. of the Exchange and the listing sponsor within seven (7) days from the date of notification on the approval for the preliminary listing review. In such cases, the proviso to paragraph (6) shall apply mutatis mutandis. [April 29, 2022] (Moved from paragraph (6) on December 28, 2023)

§16. Qualifications for Auditors of Foreign Companies

(1) “A person who meets the requirements set forth in the Enforcement Rules” in [§15(1)1] of the Regulation shall refer to a person who meets all of the requirements noted in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Five (5) years have elapsed since the incorporation;

5. Case of establishing a right of pledge for any of the following purposes to the financial institutions under Subparagraphs 1 through 11 Article 61(2) of the Enforcement Decree of the Corporate Tax Act or the securities finance companies under Article 9(17)3 of the Act:
 - (a) Loans to finance the operation of the issuing company (excluding special purpose acquisition companies); and
 - (b) Loans to finance a participation in paid-in capital increase of the issuing company (excluding the capital increase through public offering or third-party allotment)
6. Case where the right of pledge established under subparagraph 5 is changed or terminated; and
7. Other cases where the Exchange deems that it is inevitable to withdraw the stocks, etc. and establish or terminate pledges, etc. in order to comply with statutory obligations.

§18. Measures against Violations of Mandatory Holding, etc.

(1) In case of falling under any of the subparagraphs of [§17(2)] of the Regulation, the Exchange may extend the mandatory holding period for one (1) year for each violation. In such cases, the stocks, etc. whose mandatory holding period is extended shall include stocks, etc. that are mandatorily held by the person subject to the mandatory holding, stocks whose ownership has been changed or repurchased pursuant to paragraph (2), and stocks that have been sold effectively by the methods noted in subparagraphs of [§17(1)] of the Regulation.

(2) Pursuant to [§17(3)] of the Regulation, the Exchange may have the relevant corporation or the largest shareholder comply with the measures in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. The ownership of the stocks held under a borrowed name shall be changed;
2. The stocks sold among the stocks held under a borrowed name shall be repurchased. In such cases, the quantity sold shall be repurchased, but in cases where the amount repurchased is less than the amount sold, the number of stocks equivalent to the amount sold shall be purchased back; and
3. Stocks, etc. subject to mandatory holding shall be deposited with the Korea Securities Depository to enforce the measure of the mandatory holding.

§19. Suspension and Resumption of Trading, etc.

(1) The period of trading suspension under [§18(1)] of the Regulation shall be the period noted in each of the following subparagraphs. In such cases, the calculation of the trading suspension period shall be based on trading days (including the trading suspension days of the concerned issue) in each subparagraph of [§4(3)] of the KOSDAQ Market Business Regulation (hereinafter referred to as “the Business Regulation”):

1. Cases falling under [§18(1)1] of the Regulation: The day of confirming the cause (not applicable to cases where the cause for designation as an administrative issue is added). Provided that, the period of trading suspension may be extended if the Exchange deems it necessary, and in case of falling under any of the following items, the period of trading suspension shall be governed by the concerned item:
 - (a) Case of having been designated as an administrative issue due to a non-submission of annual report pursuant to [§53(1)6] of the Regulation: The period from the date of being designated as an administrative issue to the submission date of the annual report concerned;
 - (b) Case of having been designated as an administrative issue due to an application for commencement of rehabilitation procedure pursuant to [§53(1)10] of the Regulation: The period from the date of confirming the concerned cause to the date when the court makes its decision on the commencement of rehabilitation procedure. Provided that, in cases when the Exchange deems it necessary for public interest and investor protection, the trading suspension may not be lifted;
 - (c) Case of having been designated as an administrative issue due to an application for bankruptcy pursuant to [§53(1)11] of the Regulation: The period from the date of confirming the concerned cause to the date of confirming the resolution of the cause for the designation as an administrative issue. Provided that, in cases when the Exchange deems it necessary, the trading suspension may be lifted; and

- (d) Case where stocks of a special purpose acquisition company are designated as administrative issues pursuant to [§72(2)3 and §72(2)4] of the Regulation: The period from the date of being designated as administrative issues to the date of being released from such designation subject to resolution of the concerned cause.
 - (e) Case of having been designated as an administrative issue pursuant to [§85-9(1)4 or §85-16(1)4] of the Regulation: The period from the date of being designated as an administrative issue to the date of release from the designation as an administrative issue due to the relevant cause; [March 16, 2026]
2. Cases falling under [§18(1)2] of the Regulation (excluding the cause resulting from being listed on the KOSPI Market or merged into a KOSDAQ market-listed or KOSPI market-listed corporation): The period from the date of confirming the cause of delisting (including the case of confirming that the concerned stock is subject to the listing maintenance review) to the day when the cause of delisting has been resolved. Provided that, in the case of falling under any of the following items, the period of trading suspension shall be governed the concerned item:
- (a) Case where the KOSDAQ Market Corporate Review Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Corporate Review Committee”) or the Market Committee, which has granted an improvement period, deliberated and decided to lift the trading suspension during the improvement period: The trading suspension shall be lifted for a period specified by the Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee; and
 - (b) Cases falling under the cause of delisting of subscription warrants or subscription right certificates under [§85] of the Regulation: The trading shall be suspended from the date of confirming the relevant cause and the day after the date of confirmation.
3. Cases falling under [§18(1)3] of the Regulation: The period specified in each of the following items:
- (a) Cases falling under the proviso to the part other than each item of [§54(1)1] of the Regulation: Until the time when the decision on delisting is made after confirming the audit opinion on the financial statements of the latest business year.
 - (b) Cases where there is a report on a merger or an all-inclusive stock swap (limited to cases where the unlisted corporation or the KONEX market-listed corporation becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary) with an unlisted corporation or a KONEX market-listed corporation pursuant to [§6] of the KOSDAQ Market Disclosure Regulation (hereinafter referred to as “the Disclosure Regulation”): From the reporting date to the date of notification on whether or not it is a backdoor listing.
 - (c) Cases where there is a report under [§6] of the Disclosure Regulation with respect to business acquisition or asset acquisition stated as backdoor listing in the confirmation statement (including the case where it is scheduled to be stated) in [Annex 17] through [Annex 20]: From the reporting date to the date of notification on whether or not it is a backdoor listing.

- (d) Cases where there is a report under [§6] of the Disclosure Regulation with respect to an issuance of stocks through investment in-kind, which is stated as a backdoor listing in the confirmation statement in [Annex 21]: From the reporting date to the date of notification on whether or not it is a backdoor listing.
- (f) Cases where the Exchange deems it necessary to confirm whether or not it is a backdoor listing even if the confirmation statement in [Annex 17] through [Annex 21] does not state that it is a backdoor listing: From the reporting date pursuant to [§6] of the Disclosure Regulation to the date of notification on whether or not it is a backdoor listing.
- (g) Cases where the Exchange deems it necessary for investor protection and market management after the court's decision on the commencement of rehabilitation procedures: From the date of the decision on the trading suspension (including the trading suspension under the proviso to paragraph (1)1(b)) to the date of confirmation when the cause for the trading suspension is deemed to have been resolved.
- (h) Cases of confirming that the cause for listing maintenance review under any of subparagraphs of [§56(1)] of the Regulation has occurred: From the date of confirming that the cause for listing maintenance review has occurred to the date on which the decision is made on whether or not to be subject to the listing maintenance review pursuant to [§57(1)] of the Regulation. Provided that, in the case of a resolution or decision on a cancellation of spin-off or merger after spin-off stated in [§56(1)10] of the Regulation, it shall be the date of resolution or decision on the cancellation.
- (i) Cases where a decision on whether or not to be subject to the listing maintenance review is made in accordance with (g): From the date on which it is decided to be subject to the listing maintenance review to the date on which it is decided whether or not to delist. Provided that, in the case of a resolution or decision on a cancellation of spin-off or merger after spin-off mentioned in [§56(1)10] of the Regulation, it shall be the date of resolution or decision on the cancellation.
- (j) Cases where a corporation conducts a listing change or a supplementary listing pursuant to [§44] of the Regulation due to an increase or decrease of capital such as capital reduction, reverse stock split, etc., and the number of circulating stocks (referring to the number of shares calculated by subtracting those held by the largest shareholder, etc. from the number of floating stocks as confirmed by the Table of Status of Circulating Stocks in [Annex: Form No. 2]; hereinafter the same shall apply in this item) falls short of 2/100 of the total number of common stocks of the concerned KOSDAQ market-listed corporation or one hundred thousand (100,000) shares: The period from the date of the relevant listing change or supplementary listing to the date when the following reasons for release from the trading suspension were confirmed. In such cases, the date when the reasons for release from the trading suspension were confirmed shall refer to the date when it was confirmed pursuant to — the Table of Status of Circulating Stocks in [Annex: Form No. 2] submitted by the relevant corporation for such reasons as expiration of the period of mandatory holding:

- (i) Case where the trading was suspended since the number of circulating stocks was less than 2/100 of the total number of common stocks: When the number of circulating stocks has become 5/100 or more of the total number of common stocks;
 - (ii) Case where the trading was suspended since the number of circulating stocks was less than one hundred thousand (100,000) shares: When the number of circulating stocks has become three hundred thousand (300,000) shares or more; and
 - (iii) Case where the trading was suspended since the number of circulating stocks was less than 2/100 of the total number of common stocks and at the same time less than one hundred thousand (100,000) shares: When the number of circulating stocks has become 5/100 or more of the total number of common stocks and three hundred thousand (300,000) shares or more.
- (k) Cases where the Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee deliberated and decided to terminate the trading suspension pursuant to subparagraph 2(a): From the end of period for the termination of trading suspension specified by the Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee to the date on which the cause for delisting was resolved.
- (l) Cases where a special purpose acquisition company reports its resolution or decision on a merger with a corporation pursuant to [§6(1)3(a)(viii)] of the Disclosure Regulation: From the reporting date to the date specified in any of the followings:
- (i) Case where the corporation that is the counterparty to the merger is subject to the eligibility review for listing after merger pursuant to [§74] of the Regulation: Until the date of notification on the result of the eligibility review for listing after merger. Provided that, in cases where the result of the eligibility review turned out ineligible, it shall be the date of resolution or decision to suspend the merger.
 - (ii) Case where the corporation that is the counterparty to the merger is not subject to the eligibility review for listing after merger pursuant to [§74] of the Regulation and falls under any of the causes for delisting under [§73(2)9(a)(ii) through §73(2)9(a)(iv)] and [§73(2)9(b) or §73(2)9(c)] of the Regulation: The date of resolution or decision to suspend the merger. Provided that, in cases where it is confirmed that the corporation does not fall under any of the causes for delisting under [§73(2)9(a)(ii) through §73(2)9(a)(iv)] and [§73(2)9(b) or §73(2)9(c)] of the Regulation based on the details of a report and a confirmation statement at the time of the report, the trading suspension may not take place.

- (m) Cases where a KOSDAQ-listed corporation is subject to a penalty for breach of listing agreement pursuant to [§53-2] of the Regulations: The date on which the penalty for breach of listing agreement was announced. [July 31, 2026]
 - (n) Other cases where a trading suspension is deemed necessary for investor protection: One (1) day. Provided that, it may be extended in cases where the Exchange deems it necessary.
- (2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall not apply during the trading period pursuant to [§23] of the Regulation.
- (3) In cases where the trading of a stock is suspended pursuant to paragraph (1), the Exchange may suspend the trading of subscription warrants or subscription right certificates whose underlying asset is the concerned stock.
- (4) The Exchange may provide information on trading suspension to a multilateral trading company when necessary for investor protection and market management. (Amended on February 27, 2025)

§20. Submission of Operation Report on Internal Accounting Management System

(1) “Documents stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the main sentence of [§19(3)] of the Regulation shall refer to a written report on operation of internal accounting management system in [Annex: Form No. 34], which has been verified, reviewed and signed by the representative director concerning the operation of the internal accounting management system, and contain the matters noted in each of the following subparagraphs. Provided that, in case of operating the internal accounting management system under the laws and regulations of home country, etc., it shall refer to the Korean translation of the report on internal accounting management system prepared under the concerned laws and regulations: (Amended on April 29, 2022)

1. The regulation on internal accounting management system and the matters concerning organizations that manage and operate the internal accounting management system;
2. Operating status of the internal accounting management system, which was reported by the internal accounting manager (referring to a standing officer who is responsible for management and operation of the internal accounting management system) of the internal accounting system to the board of directors and audit committee (referring to the auditor, in cases where the auditor has been appointed; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph);
3. The details that the audit committee has reported to the board of directors upon reviewing the documents noted in subparagraph 2;
4. The review and audit opinions of the auditor on the document noted in subparagraph 2. In such cases, the auditor shall be the auditor of the financial statements of the latest business year, but in cases where the Exchange deems it unavoidable, the member companies of the relevant auditor noted in [§16(2)1(b)] or [§16(2)2(b)] may be included; and

5. Other matters recognized as necessary by the Exchange with respect to the establishment of an internal accounting management system and the appropriateness of its operation.

(2) “Foreign subsidiaries specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§19(3)] of the Regulation shall refer to foreign subsidiaries that fall under any of the following subparagraphs:

1. Subsidiaries whose sole purpose is to own the stocks of other companies; and
2. Subsidiaries whose total assets at the end of the latest business year are less than 10/100 of the total assets of the holding company at the end of the latest business year.

§20-2. Scope of Subsidiaries, etc.

“The company designated by the Enforcement Rules” in the part other than the subparagraphs of [§78-2(1)] of the Regulation shall refer to a company (including foreign corporations, etc.), which is not listed on the KOSPI market, KOSDAQ market, or an overseas securities market, that falls under any of the following subparagraphs:

1. A subsidiary of a KOSDAQ-listed corporation;
2. An affiliated company of a KOSDAQ-listed company with a vertical control relationship. In this case, the criteria for determining the vertical control relationship shall be established separately by the Exchange;
3. A company that fell under subparagraph 1 or 2 within the past one (1) year from the date corresponding to any of the following items:
 - (a) Cases of intending to list on the KOSPI or KOSDAQ market: The date of application for preliminary listing review; or
 - (b) Cases of intending to list on an overseas securities market: The date of first submission of relevant documents for listing to the relevant overseas securities market or the relevant regulatory authority.

[July 31, 2026]

§21. Application Documents for Delisting, etc.

(1) The application for delisting pursuant to the main sentence of [§22(1)] of the Regulation shall mean attached [Annex: Form No. 1] and the supplementary documents shall be as follows:

1. A copy of the minutes on special resolution of general meeting of shareholders concerned with the delisting. Provided that, in case of an application for delisting of different class of shares (including foreign different class of shares; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph), it shall be a copy of the minutes on special resolution of general meeting of shareholders of the different class of shares; and
 2. A copy of the listing sponsor's consent on delisting. Provided that, this provision shall not apply to an application for delisting of different classes of shares.
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in cases where a delisting has been requested for the purpose of listing on the KOSPI Market pursuant to [§54(1)9] of the Regulation, the application for delisting in [Annex: Form No. 1] and the minutes of general meeting of shareholders, which made the decision on delisting, shall be submitted to apply for delisting. (Amended on December 9, 2022)
- (3) The Exchange shall hold the Corporate Review Committee pursuant to the proviso to [§22(2)] of the Regulation within fifteen (15) days (based on business days) from the date of receiving an application for delisting unless there are any special reasons.
- (4) The Corporate Review Committee pursuant to the proviso to [§22(2)] of the Regulation shall deliberate and decide whether to delist the concerned stocks (including depository receipts of foreign stocks; the same shall apply in this Article) in consideration of the matters noted in each of the following subparagraphs:
1. Whether the largest shareholder, etc. (including the joint holders under Article 141(1) of the Enforcement Decree of the Act, while excluding the relevant KOSDAQ-listed corporation; the same hereinafter in this Article) have faithfully observed the procedures for shareholder protection by such means of acquiring stocks from the shareholders who held the concerned stocks before the application for delisting (including tender offers and other means equivalent thereto), or guaranteeing the acquisition of the concerned stocks for a specified period after the delisting; and
 2. Whether the matters necessary for the realization of public interests and protection of investors, such as the shareholding ratios of the largest shareholder, etc. (referring to the ratios calculated based on the number of stocks excluding treasury stocks from the total number of issued stocks) and conditions for tender offer, have been satisfied.
- (5) The Exchange shall, within three (3) days (based on business days) from the date of deliberation or resolution of the Corporate Review Committee under paragraph (4), notify the concerned KOSDAQ market-listed corporation in writing whether the concerned stock is delisted or not.

CHAPTER I I . LISTING AND LISTING MANAGEMENT OF COMMON STOCKS

Section 1. Listing Requirements and Procedures

§22. Application Documents for Preliminary Listing Review, etc.

The application for preliminary listing review and supplementary documents in the main sentence of [§25(1)] of the Regulation shall be specified in [Annex 1].

§23. Exceptions to Mandatory Holding of Initial Listing

(1) “Cases stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§26(1)1] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following subparagraphs:

1. Case where a specially related person (referring to a specially related person under [§2(1)13(b)] of the Regulation; hereinafter the same shall apply) who holds less than 5/100 of the total number of common stocks as of the application date for listing falls under any of the following items:
 - (a) Where it is difficult to discover the whereabouts of the concerned specially related person;
 - (b) Where the concerned specially related person and the largest shareholder do not have common interests; and
 - (c) Where the number of stocks held by the relevant specially related person is less than one hundred (100) shares.
2. Case attributable to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or court rulings.

(2) In the case of paragraph (1)1, the largest shareholder, etc. of the listing applicant shall acquire the same number of stocks, etc. held by the specially related person from a person other than the largest shareholder, etc. on behalf of the specially related person and hold it for the same period as the mandatory holding period of the specially related person. Provided that, in cases where the Exchange deems it unavoidable, a person other than the largest shareholder, etc. may hold the stocks, etc. mandatorily on behalf of the concerned specially related person.

(3) “Cases stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§26(1)2] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following cases: (Amended on December 9, 2022)

1. Case of an acquisition by employees who are members of the employee stock ownership association;
2. Where the largest shareholder, etc. acquires the same number of stocks, etc. from a person other than the largest shareholder, etc. on behalf of the person subject to mandatory holding and holds it mandatorily for the relevant period. Provided that, in cases where the Exchange deems it unavoidable, a person other than the largest shareholder, etc. may hold the same number of stocks, etc. mandatorily on behalf for the relevant period;

3. Where the concerned corporation is a KONEX market-listed corporation and falls under any of the following items:
 - (a) Case of acquiring stocks, etc. from the largest shareholder, etc. in the KONEX Market; and
 - (b) Case of selling the stocks, etc., which were acquired before the date of listing on the KONEX Market, in the KONEX Market.
 4. Case where, as a case where the listing applicant was established by a spin-off through carving-out of a KOSDAQ-listed corporation or a KOSPI-listed corporation, the Exchange recognizes that a shareholder of the parent company (referring to a parent company pursuant to the Article 342-2(1) of the Commercial Act; hereinafter, the same in this subparagraph) acquires the stocks, etc. in accordance with a shareholder protection plan, etc. for the shareholders of the parent company of the listing applicant.
 5. Case attributable to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or court rulings.
- (4) “Cases stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§26(1)3] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following cases:
1. Case of acquisition by employees who are members of the employee stock ownership association;
 2. Case of acquisition by a venture capital or a professional investor;
 3. Case of acquisition by a foreign investor pursuant to the Foreign Investment Promotion Act, and the relevant acquired stocks, etc. have not been disposed of for one (1) year from the date of acquisition;
 4. Where the largest shareholder, etc. acquires the same number of stocks, etc. from a person other than the largest shareholder, etc. on behalf of the person subject to mandatory holding and holds it mandatorily for the relevant period. Provided that, in cases where the Exchange deems it unavoidable, a person other than the largest shareholder, etc. may hold the same number of stocks, etc. mandatorily on behalf for the relevant period
 5. Where the concerned corporation is a KONEX market-listed corporation and falls under any of the following items:
 - (a) Case of acquiring stocks, etc. issued through a third-party allotment method during the period listed on the KONEX Market; and
 - (b) Case of selling the stocks, etc., which were acquired before the date of listing on the KONEX Market, in the KONEX Market.
 6. Case attributable to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or court rulings.

(5) “Cases stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§26(1)4] of the Regulation shall refer to the cases where the relevant corporation falls under any of the following subparagraphs: (Amended on April 29, 2022)

1. Among technology growth companies, registered or designated corporations in K-OTC Market that meet the requirements under [§26(5)];
2. Large corporations, which are domestic enterprises; and
3. KONEX market-listed corporations that have been listed on the KONEX Market for at least one (1) year based on the date of preliminary listing review. Provided that, in cases where a venture capital or a professional investor acquired stocks, etc. at the KONEX Market or sold stocks, etc., which were acquired before the listing on the KONEX Market, in the KONEX Market, KONEX market-listed corporations that have been listed on the KONEX Market for less than one (1) year may be included.

(6) The disparate ratio between the acquisition price and the public offering price under the proviso to [§26(1)5] of the Regulation shall be calculated in accordance with each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Acquisition price: The arithmetic average of the acquisition prices of the stocks, etc. of the applicant for initial listing by weighting the number of stocks, etc. acquired by the listing sponsor during six (6) months before the date of application for preliminary listing review. In such cases, acquisition price of securities that do not correspond to stocks, such as convertible bonds, bonds with warrants, etc., may be calculated (based on the date of calculation for the acquisition price) by taking into account the number of shares or exercise prices in the event of conversion, listing, etc.
2. Public offering price: The price under Article 5(1) of the Regulations on Securities Underwriting Business, etc.
3. Disparate ratio between the acquisition price and the public offering price: The ratio calculated by the following formula:

Disparate ratio between the public offering price and the acquisition price = $(\text{Public offering price} - \text{Acquisition price}) \div \text{Acquisition price} \times 100$

§24. Criteria for Paper Companies

(1) “A paper company stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” under the main sentence of [§26(2)] of the Regulation shall refer to a company that meets each of the following requirements:

1. It shall not be a stock-listed corporation under Article 9(15)3 of the Act or a company that has listed foreign stocks, etc. on the eligible overseas securities markets;

2. As of the end of the latest business year, the aggregated value of stocks of other companies owned by the relevant company (hereinafter referred to as an “investment target company” in this Article) shall be at least 50/1000 of the total asset. Provided that, in the case of submitting documents that can confirm the relevant fact based on the current stock price and the total asset after the end of the latest business year, such documents may be used for the calculation;

2. Backdoor listing under paragraph (3)2: The review methods, requirements, and procedures separately specified by the Exchange shall be followed.

(5) The review requirements under paragraph (4)1 shall apply based on the financial statements of the latest business year and the audit report of the backdoor listing target company. In such cases, the provisions of [§33(2)] shall apply mutatis mutandis with regards to the financial statements.

(6) Matters concerning the financial details of the common-stock-listed corporation pursuant to [§33(2)] of the Regulation shall apply based on the financial statements of the latest business year for which the audit opinion is “unqualified” or “qualified” (limited to “qualified opinion” due to uncertainties over the ability to continue as a going concern; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph). Provided that, in cases where the audit opinion for the latest business year is not “unqualified” or “qualified”, it shall be based on the financial statements of the business year closest to the latest business year for which the audit opinion is “unqualified” or “qualified”.

§32. Submission of Documents for Backdoor Listing Review

(1) The common-stock-listed corporation shall, unless there is an unavoidable reason, consult with the Exchange in advance concerning whether the relevant trades fall under backdoor listing and the review requirements and procedures for backdoor listing before the submission date of the report on material facts about the transactions under each subparagraph of [§33(1)] and [§33(2)] of the Regulation (in the case of an investment in kind under [§33(1)2(b)] of the Regulation, it refers to the date on which the report is made pursuant to [§6] of the Disclosure Regulation regarding the issuance of the relevant shares),.

(2) Pursuant to [§34(1)] of the Regulation, in case of falling under any of the following subparagraph, the confirmation statement on backdoor listing and supplementary documents specified in [Annex 15] through [Annex 21] shall be submitted by the date specified in each of the following subparagraphs: (Amended on December 28, 2023)

1. Case where the common-stock-listed corporation merges with an unlisted corporation (including a corporation that issues equity securities other than stocks; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph) or a KONEX-listed corporation pursuant to Article 522 of the Commercial Act: The submission date of the report on material facts of the merger;
2. Case where the common-stock-listed corporation intends to make an unlisted corporation or a KONEX-listed corporation its wholly owned subsidiary through all-inclusive share swaps pursuant to Article 360-2(2) of the Commercial Act with the unlisted corporation or the KONEX-listed corporation: The submission date of the report on material facts of the all-inclusive share swaps;
3. Case where the common-stock-listed corporation makes a significant business takeover, which requires a submission of the report on material facts pursuant to Article 161(1)7 of the Act, from an unlisted corporation or a KONEX-listed corporation: The submission date of the report on material facts of the significant business transfer;
4. Case where the common-stock-listed corporation acquires material assets, which requires a submission of a report on material facts pursuant to Article 161(1)17 of the Act, from major shareholders of an unlisted corporation or a KOEX-listed corporation (limited to cases where the assets to be acquired are equity securities issued by the unlisted corporation or the KONEX-listed corporation): The submission date of the report on material facts regarding the acquisition of material assets;

5. Case where the common-stock-listed corporation issues stocks, etc. by way of third-party allotment within six (6) months from the submission date of the report on material facts under subparagraphs 3 or 4, or there is a stock transfer: The date on which the resolution or decision is made concerning the issuance of the stocks, etc., or the date of reporting on the stock transfer. Provided that, the cases subject to the backdoor listing review due to the submission of the report on material facts under subparagraphs 3 or 4 shall be excluded;
6. Case where the common-stock-listed corporation issues stocks by way of third-party allotment, and the payment for the stocks is made through the investment in kind pursuant to Article 422 of the Commercial Act (limited to the cases where the property, which is the object of the investment in kind, is equity securities issued by an unlisted corporation or a KONEX-listed corporation, and the amount of the investment in kind is at least the amount stipulated in [§31(2)]): The date on which the resolution or decision is made concerning the issuance of the stocks. In such cases, in cases where there is a correction report on the report pursuant to [§6] of the Disclosure Regulation regarding the issuance of the concerned stocks due to a change in the value of equity securities, which is the object of the investment in kind, the confirmation statement and supplementary documents on backdoor listing shall be submitted again, but such submission may be omitted if the details of the statement and the documents are identical to those already submitted; and
7. Other cases similar to the trades stipulated in subparagraphs 1 through 6 and recognized as necessary by the Exchange for the public interests and investor protection: The date specified by the Exchange.

(3) The Exchange shall determine whether the trades under each subparagraph of paragraph (2) fall under backdoor listing and notify such result to the common-stock-listed corporation without delay.

(4) The common-stock-listed corporation, which has been notified that it falls under backdoor listing pursuant to paragraph (3), shall submit without delay the review documents on backdoor listing stipulated in [Annex 3] and the backdoor listing report separately specified by the Exchange.

(5) The common-stock-listed corporation, which has been notified that it falls under backdoor listing pursuant to the former part of [§34(2)] of the Regulation, shall submit, in cases when the Exchange requests it, the financial statements and the documents containing other information about financial data about the corporate merger pursuant to [§12-8-6] of the Guideline for Preparation of Corporate Disclosure Forms established by the Financial Supervisory Service within the two (2) weeks from the date on which the documents pursuant to paragraph (4) are submitted. In such cases, the financial information to be additionally submitted shall include all of the following matters:

1. The estimated financial position statement as of the date of business combination such as the merger date ;

2. The estimated financial date for the business year in which the date of business combination such as the merger date falls and the following business year ; and
3. The confirmation statement regarding the statement and the data in subparagraphs 1 and 2 issued by the accounting firm under subparagraph 7(a) of Article 2 of the External Audit Act.

(6) In cases where a change occurs in the confirmation statement on backdoor listing and the supplementary documents submitted pursuant to paragraph (2) before the merger, all-inclusive share swaps, significant business transfer, acquisitions of material assets or investment in kind is completed, the common-stock-listed corporation shall immediately notify the Exchange of such change.

(7) Pursuant to [§34(4)] of the Regulation, in cases where the backdoor listing target company meets the requirements under [§33(3)2], the Exchange shall notify the result of the review within thirty (30) days (based on business days) from the date on which the review documents are received. Provided that, this provision shall not apply if backdoor listing target company is a foreign holding company located in Korea or a foreign company that is not listed on an eligible overseas securities market.

(8) The listing specification under [§34(5)] of the Regulation shall mean attached [Annex: Form No. 41].

§33. Application Method of Requirements for Backdoor Listing Review

(1) In cases where the latest business year of a backdoor listing target company is less than six (6) months, the requirements for backdoor listing in [§35(1) and §35(2)] of the Regulation shall also apply to the business year immediately preceding the latest business year.

(2) “The financial statements specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the former part of [§35(2)3] of the Regulation shall refer to the selling corporation’s financial statements annotated with the asset amount, liability amount, sales amount and income from ongoing business before tax of the business sector acquired by the common-stock-listed corporation. Provided that, in cases where the auditor’s confirmation letter (referring to the auditor of the relevant financial statement) about the relevant asset amount, liability amount, sales amount and income from ongoing business before tax is submitted, it shall be deemed that the annotation on the relevant matters is provided.

(3) In accordance with [§35(3)] of the Regulation, in the case of falling under any of the following subparagraphs, the qualitative review requirements under [§29(1)1] of the Regulation shall be deemed to be satisfied. Provided that, this provision shall not apply where the Exchange deems an exception is necessary such as a significant slowdown in business:

1. The common-stock-listed corporation shall meet all of the following requirements, and the backdoor listing target company shall not engage in the businesses that are deemed to undermine the balanced development of the national economy and the efficient fundraising function of the capital market or to run counter to good morals and other social orders:

- (a) As of the submission date of report on material facts (in the case of backdoor listing as a result of investment in kind under [§33(1)2(b)] of the Regulation, it refers to the date of reporting on the stock issuance under [§6] of the Disclosure Regulation; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph), three (3) years have elapsed since its listing (excluding listing change and supplementary listing);
 - (b) There shall be no record of having been designated as an administrative issue, an investment attention issue, or an unfaithful disclosure corporation within the past two (2) year from the submission date of report on material facts;
 - (c) There shall be no capital impairment as of the end of the latest business year (in cases where the semi-annual report has been finalized as of the submission date of the review documents on backdoor listing, it shall be the end of the semi-annual period). In such cases, during the business year in which the submission date of report on material facts falls, the amount to be transferred to equity as a result of paid-in capital increases, exercises of subscription rights, conversion rights or stock options and revaluations of assets shall be reflected;
 - (d) The sales amount shall be at least KRW 20 billion and there shall be operating profits in the latest business year; and

1. Reasons of [§52(1)2(a),(d),(g) through (j)] of the Regulation: The timely designation shall apply based on the review or audit reports that are reported pursuant to [§56(1)2(e)(i)] of the KOSDAQ Market Disclosure Regulation. In such cases, cases where there is a revised report to the concerned report, the designation as or the released from an investment attention issue shall be made on the next day of the day of the report based on the content of the revised report.
2. Reasons of [§52(1)2(g) through (i)] of the Regulation: In a case where a common stock-listed corporation had made a spin-off to convert to a shareholdings company but has not completed the conversion to a shareholdings company, the timely designation shall not apply to the business year to which the spin-off date belongs and the next business year.
3. Reason of [§52(1)2(g)] of the Regulation: The timely designation shall apply in accordance with each of the following items:
 - a. Notwithstanding the Regulation [§3(7)2], in cases excluding a corporation specified in the Regulation [§3(7)1], the timely designation shall be based on the individual financial statements.
 - b. The timely designation shall not apply in cases where the business year is less than six (6) months due to change of fiscal year, etc. of a common stock-listed corporation.

4. Reason of [§52(1)2(h) and (i)] of the Regulation: Even if the auditor's review opinion or audit opinion is not unqualified, the judgment is based on the financial statements submitted by the common-stock-listed company. [July 1, 2026]

(4) “Technology growth company stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§52(1)2(g)] of the Regulation shall mean a technology growth company whose company category has not changed to the premier company category.

(5) The timings of the designation as an investment attention issue and the release therefrom pursuant to [§52(3)] of the Regulation shall be specified in [Annex 9].

(6) In addition to the provisions of paragraphs (1) through (5), the designation as an investment attention issue and the release from such designation and other necessary matters shall separately be stipulated by the Exchange.

(Wholly amended on December 9, 2022)

§49. Methods of Applying Causes for Sales Not Up To Standards

(1) “Technology growth company specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the main sentences of [§53(1)1(a) and (b)] and the main sentence of [§53(1)2(b)] of the Regulation shall refer to a technology growth company whose company category has not changed to the premier company category and has disclosed a corporate value enhancement plan at least once during the most recent fiscal year pursuant to subparagraph 21 of [§13]] of the Enforcement Rules of the Disclosure Regulations, and “company with unrealized profit specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the main sentences of [§53(1)1(a)] and [§53(1)2(a)] shall refer to a company with unrealized profit that has disclosed a corporate value enhancement plan at least once during the most recent fiscal year pursuant to subparagraph 21 of [§13]] of the Enforcement Rules of the Disclosure Regulations. In this case, the corporate value enhancement plan of a technology growth company shall be disclosed including the contents prepared in accordance with Annex Form No. 44. (Amended on December 9, 2022; July 1, 2026)

(2) “The requirements stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in [§53(1)1(b)] of the Regulation shall refer to the cases where a confirmation of outstanding corporation in R&D in accordance with Annex Form No. 29 has been filed and recognized by the Exchange. In such cases, such confirmation shall be submitted within sixty (60) days from the end of each business year (limited to the cases of submitting it before the submission date of annual reports).

(3) “Method prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in [§53(1)1(c)] of the Regulations shall refer to the arithmetic average of the closing prices on trading days during the latest fiscal year, excluding days on which trading was suspended, multiplied by the number of listed shares. Provided that, if a closing price is not available, subparagraph of [§51] shall apply mutatis

mutandis. [July 9, 2025]

(4) The designation as an administrative issue and the release therefrom due to the sales amount not up to standards under [§53(1)1] of the Regulation and the loss from continuing operations before tax under [§53(1)2] of the Regulation shall apply based on the review or audit report reported pursuant to [§6(1)2(e)(i) or §6(1)2(e)(ii)] of the Disclosure Regulation. In such cases, in cases where there is a correction report for the concerned report, a designation as an administrative issue or a release from such designation shall take place on the day after the date of report based on the corrected and reported details. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

(5) In cases where an administrative issue is designated pursuant to [§53(1)1&2] of the Regulation and any event in each of the following subparagraphs occurs, the business years specified in the relevant subparagraphs shall be excluded from the business years in which the sales amount not up to standards and the loss from continuing operations before tax occurred: (Amended on December 9, 2022)

1. Case where a common-stock-listed corporation split off to convert into a holding company, but the conversion into a holding company has not been completed: The business year to which the date of split-off belongs and the following business year
2. Case where the business year of the common-stock-listed corporation is less than six (6) months due to a change in the accounting period: The concerned business year

(6) “Amount specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the main sentence of [§53(1)2] of the Regulation shall mean the financial debt evaluation loss that is confirmed by [Annex Form No. 42] Confirmation of Evaluation Loss Relating to Refixing Option Financial Instruments, confirmed by the auditor, in cases where such form is submitted. [December 9, 2022]

(7) In the case where the loss from continuing operations before corporate tax under [§53(1)2] of the Regulation occurs, notwithstanding the latter part of the part other than each subparagraph of [§3(7)] of the Regulation, non-controlling interests are not excluded as well when calculating the equity capital based on consolidated financial statements. [December 9, 2022]

§50. Methods of Applying Capital Impairment, etc.

(1) The reasons of capital impairment under [§53(1)3] and equity capital not up to standards under [§53(1)4] of the Regulation shall apply based on the review or audit report filed pursuant to [§6(1)2(e)(i) or §6(1)2(e)(ii)] of the Disclosure Regulation. In such cases, in cases where there is a correction report for the concerned report, a designation as an administrative issue or a release from such designation shall take place based on the corrected and reported details on the day after the date of report. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

(2) In cases where a common-stock-listed corporation split off to convert into a holding company, but the conversion into a holding company has not been completed, the provisions of [§53(1)3 and 4] of the Regulation shall not apply to the business year to which the date of split-off belongs and the following business year. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

(3) [Deleted on December 9, 2022]

(4) [Deleted on December 9, 2022]

§51. Methods of Applying Market Capitalization not up to Standards

(1) In cases where there is no closing price, the market capitalization not up to standards under [§53(1)5] of the Regulation and the stock price not up to standards under [§53(1)5-2] of the Regulation shall apply based on the base price of the relevant issue on the day.

(2) In cases where, after being designated as an administrative stock pursuant to [§53(1)5] of the Regulation or under [§53(1)5-2] of the Regulation, it is determined that the occurrence of a reason for release from the designation of administrative stock pursuant to Annex 10 is impossible, the cause for delisting shall be deemed to have occurred at the time of such determination.

[July 1, 2026]

§52. Methods of Applying Non-submission of Regular Reports

(1) In cases where a common-stock-listed corporation requests an extension of the deadline for submitting its annual report, semi-annual report or quarterly report due to any of the following causes, the Exchange may postpone the designation as an administrative issue and release therefrom pursuant to [§53(1)6] of the Regulation for the period specified in the concerned subparagraph. Provided that, in the case where the relevant cause occurs three (3) months before the statutory deadline for the submission of the regular reports, this paragraph shall be applicable only when the common-stock-listed corporation provides justification as to the cause of non-submission and the Exchange deems it necessary:

1. Case where an auditor of the common-stock-listed corporation (including subsidiaries of the relevant corporation) is unable to carry out an audit due to any causes under the subparagraphs of Article 13(2) of the Enforcement Decree of the Act on External Audit: A period not exceeding three (3) months from the statutory deadline for submission of the concerned report
2. Other unavoidable circumstances where it is not possible for the common-stock-listed corporation to submit the annual, semi-annual, or quarterly report within the statutory submission deadline and the case is acknowledged through approval, etc. by the Financial Services Commission or the Securities and Futures Commission: The period from the statutory submission deadline for the report to the date determined by the Financial Services Commission or the Securities and Futures Commission through approval, etc.

(2) In the case of a corporation exempted from the submission of annual reports under the proviso to Article 159(1) of the Act, it shall not be designated as an administrative issue under [§53(1)6] of the Regulation.

§53. Methods of Applying Corporate Governance not up to Standards

(1) “The efforts set forth in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to the part other than each subparagraph of [§53(1)7] of the Regulation shall refer to each of the followings:

1. Introduction of an electronic voting system;
2. Solicitation to exercise voting rights by proxy;
3. Request for exercises of voting rights to institutional investors, etc.; and
4. Other actions taken to establish the general meeting of shareholders.

(2) In the case of applying the provisions of [§53(1)7] of the Regulation, the Exchange shall reflect the result of the general meeting of shareholders of the common-stock-listed corporation and examine the qualifications of outside director and the audit committee based on the written confirmations submitted by the concerned corporation.

(3) In cases where a common-stock-listed corporation has failed to appoint its outside director or establish an audit committee due to unavoidable reasons such as death, the provisions of [§53(1)7] of the Regulation shall not apply.

(4) In cases where the deadline for submitting regular reports is extended pursuant to [§52(1)] of the Regulation, a designation as an administrative issue under [§53(1)7] of the Regulation may be postponed for the period specified in each subparagraph of [§52(1)].

§54. Methods of Applying Trading Volume not up to Standards

(1) The average monthly trading volume in a quarter under [§53(1)8] of the Regulation shall refer to the quantity calculated by dividing the total trading volume for the concerned quarter of a common-stock-listed corporation in the KOSDAQ Market (including trading at multilateral trading companies) by three (3). In such cases, if there is a trading suspension for the concerned issue during the quarter, the average monthly trading volume shall be calculated and applied by conversion based on the trading volume and the trading days excluding the period of trading suspension, and, for the last trading day of each quarter period, only trading volume up to the close of regular market trading hours shall be included in the calculation. (Amended on February 27, 2025; July 1, 2026)

(2) In the cases of calculating the average monthly trading volume in a quarter pursuant to paragraph (1), if the number of floating stocks has changed during the quarter, the quarterly turnover ratio shall be calculated by aggregating the daily turnover ratio that was calculated by dividing the daily trading volume by the number of floating stocks of the day, and the average monthly turnover ratio shall be calculated by dividing the quarterly turnover ratio by three (3).

(3) In the case of falling under any of the following subparagraphs, the relevant company shall not be designated as an administrative issue due to the trading volume not up to standards under [§53(1)8] of the Regulation:

1. Case where the agreement for liquidity provision pursuant to [§12-3(1)] of the Business Regulation has been entered into as of the end of the quarter; or
2. Case where the number of trading days for the concerned issue during the quarter is less than 1/2 of the number of trading days in the KOSDAQ Market during the quarter.

(4) In cases where a common-stock-listed corporation that has submitted a tender offer statement under Article 134(2) of the Act (limited to the case where such fact is stated in the tender offer statement) for the purpose of being delisted falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the corporation shall not be designated as an administrative issue due to the trading volume not up to standards in [§53(1)8] of the Regulation during the period set forth in the respective subparagraph. Provided that, in cases where the number of shares owned by the minority shareholders at the end of the latest business year falls below 5/100 of the total number of common stocks even while the designation as an administrative issue is suspended pursuant to the main sentence, the corporation shall be designated as an administrative issue pursuant to [§53(1)8] of the Regulation:

1. Where the number of common stocks acquired through tender offers [including the stocks acquired through tender offers for the purpose of being delisted within the three (3) year prior to the date of submission of the post tender offer report (referring to the post tender offer report under Article 143 of the Act; hereinafter the same shall apply) as confirmed by the post tender offer report] is equal to or more than 30/100 of the total number of common stocks: From the quarter in which the submission date of the post tender offer report falls to the end of the three (3) consecutive business years following the business year which includes the relevant quarter. In such cases, if there is a correction for the post tender offer report and such correction is reported, the date of filing such correction report shall be deemed as the date of submission.
2. Where the number of treasury stocks that the common-stock-listed corporation acquired (including the treasury stocks acquired through tender offers for the purpose of being delisted within the three (3) year prior to the date of submission of the post tender offer report as confirmed by the post tender offer report) is equal to or more than 30/100 of the total number of common stocks: From the quarter in which the submission date of the post tender offer report falls to the end of the first quarter of the business year following the business year in which the number of shares held by the largest shareholder, etc. at the end of the concerned business year exceeds 95/100 of the total number of common stocks. In such cases, the latter part of subparagraph 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(5) “Minority shareholders stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the former part of [§53(1)8(c)] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following persons: (Amended on September 27, 2022)

1. A person who holds less than 1/100 of the total number of common stocks. Provided that the largest shareholders, etc. are excluded;

2. Professional investors who do not fall under the largest shareholder, etc.;
3. Funds under Article 3(3) of the Enforcement Decree of the Venture Business Act;
4. Venture capitals;
5. Foreign investment companies;
6. Investment companies (referring to an investment company under Article 9(18)2 of the Act); and
7. Any other foreign companies that have acquired stocks of a common-stock-listed corporation for investment purposes and are equivalent to professional investors.

§55. Methods of Applying Stock Distribution not up to Standards

(1) With respect to the designation as an administrative issue due to a stock distribution not up to standards under [§53(1)9] of the Regulation, a common-stock-listed corporation shall submit the summarized register of shareholders in [Annex: Form No. 30] and documents that are recognized as necessary by the Exchange within five (5) days from the statutory deadline for submission of annual reports. In such cases, the common-stock-listed corporation may submit via the electronic disclosure system under [§54(1)] of the Disclosure Regulation.

(2) In cases where a common-stock-listed corporation that has submitted a tender offer statement under Article 134(2) of the Act (limited to the case where such fact is stated in the tender offer statement) for the purpose of being delisted falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the common-stock-listed corporation shall not be designated as an administrative issue pursuant to the stock distribution not up to standards in [§53(1)9] of the Regulation during the period set forth in the respective subparagraph. Provided that, in cases where the number of stocks held by minority shareholders at the end of the latest business year is less than 5/100 of the total number of common stocks even while the designation as an administrative issue is postponed under the main sentence, the common-stock-listed corporation shall be designated as an administrative issue pursuant to [§53(1)9] of the Regulation:

1. Where the number of common stocks acquired through tender offers (including the stocks acquired through tender offers for the purpose of being delisted within the three (3) years prior to the date of submission of the post tender offer report and confirmed by the post tender offer report) is equal to or more than 30/100 of the total number of common stocks: From the business year in which the submission date of the post tender offer report falls (in cases where the post tender offer report is submitted within the statutory deadline for submission of annual reports for the latest business year, it shall be deemed that the post tender offer report has been submitted during the latest business year; hereinafter the same shall apply in this paragraph), to the end of the following two (2) consecutive business years. In such cases, if there is a correction for the post tender offer report and such correction is reported, the date of filing such correction report shall be deemed as the date of submission.

2. Where the number of treasury stocks that the common-stock-listed corporation acquired (including the treasury stocks acquired through tender offers for the purpose of being delisted within the three (3) year prior to the date of submission of the post tender offer report and confirmed by the post tender offer report) is equal to or more than 30/100 of the total number of common stocks: From the business year in which the submission date of the post tender offer report falls to the end of the business year in which the number of shares held by the largest shareholder, etc. at the end of the concerned business year does not exceed 95/100 of the total number of common stocks. In such cases, the latter part of subparagraph 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(3) “The minority shareholders specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the former part other than each subparagraph in [§53(1)9] of the Regulation shall refer to persons falling under any subparagraph of [§54(5)].

§56. Methods of Applying Bankruptcy Filing

“The cases stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§53(1)11] of the Regulation shall refer to any the following cases:

1. Case where a creditor has filed for bankruptcy and the Exchange deems that the need for a designation as an administrative issue is low as the case falls under any of the following items:
 - (a) Where the total credit amount subject to the bankruptcy filing within six (6) months from the date of the bankruptcy filing is less than 10/100 of the equity capital (5/100 for a large-sized corporation under [§2(27)] of the Disclosure Regulation) and less than KRW two (2) billion; and
 - (b) Where it is confirmed that the common-stock-listed corporation has deposited the total credit amount subject to the bankruptcy filing in the court within six (6) months from the date of the bankruptcy filing.
2. Other cases where the Exchange deems that the risk of harming public interests and investor protection is low considering the abuse of rights in connection with the bankruptcy filing and the claim-obligation relationship.

§57. Objection to Designations of Administrative Issues

(1) “The causes specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the former part of [§53(4)] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following causes:

1. Corporate governance not up to standards pursuant to [§53(1)7] of the Regulation;

2. Stock distribution not up to standards pursuant to [§53(1)9] of the Regulation;
3. Application for commencement of rehabilitation procedures pursuant to [§53(1)10] of the Regulation; and
4. Application for bankruptcy pursuant to [§53(1)11] of the Regulation.

(2) Upon receiving an official objection noted in [§53(4)] of the Regulation, the Exchange shall finalize the decision on the objection through the deliberation and resolution of the Corporate Review Committee within ten (10) days (based on business days) from the date of receiving the objection unless there is any special reason,.

(3) In the case of accepting an objection as a result of the deliberation and resolution made pursuant to paragraph (2), it shall be deemed that the designation as an administrative issue has lost its validity as of the date of accepting the objection. Provided that, in applying the cause of delisting by formality review under [§54(1)] of the Regulation, it shall be deemed that the validity is lost retroactively from the concerned designation date.

§58. Designations as Administrative Issues and Release therefrom

(1) The timing of designating administrative issues and releasing therefrom pursuant to [§53(8)] of the Regulation shall be stipulated in [Annex 10].

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall not apply during the trading period under [§23] of the Regulation.

§58-2. Procedures for Imposing Penalties on Listing Agreement, etc.

(1) In the case where the Exchange confirms that the grounds for imposing penalties pursuant to [§53-2] of the Regulation have arisen, it shall notify the listed corporation of the following matters:

1. The fact that the grounds for imposing penalties for breaching listing agreement (hereinafter referred to as "penalties") have arisen;
2. Matters concerning the procedures for imposing penalties and filing objections; and
3. Other matters necessary in relation to the imposition of penalties.

(2) The KOSDAQ-listed corporation may file an objection against the occurrence of grounds for imposing penalties within fifteen (15) days from the date of receiving the notice pursuant to paragraph (1), attaching the documents specified in the following subparagraphs:

1. Application for Objection to the Occurrence of Grounds for Imposition of Penalty for Breach of Listing Agreement in [Annex: Form No. 4-2];

2. Documents deemed necessary by the Exchange in relation to measures for investor protection; and

3. Other documents deemed necessary by the Exchange in relation to the filing of an objection.

(3) The Exchange shall convene the Listing and Disclosure Committee within twenty (20) days from the date of receipt of the objection pursuant to paragraph (2) (or within thirty (30) days from the date of notification pursuant to paragraph (1) if the KOSDAQ-listed corporation has not filed an objection) to deliberate on whether to impose a penalty. In this case, the Exchange shall provide the representative of the listing applicant with an opportunity to present his/her opinion.

(4) The amount of the penalty shall be determined in Annex 12, taking into consideration the market capitalization of the KOSDAQ-listed corporation and the materiality of the violation.

(5) When the Exchange imposes a penalty on a KOSDAQ-listed corporation, it shall notify the relevant corporation of the Notice of Imposition of Penalty for Breach of Listing Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "notice" in this Article) in accordance with [Annex: Form No. 37].

(6) A KOSDAQ-listed corporation that has received a notice pursuant to paragraph (5) shall pay the penalty within one (1) month from the date of receiving the relevant notice.

(7) Other matters concerning the use and management of the penalty shall be determined separately by the Exchange.

[July 31, 2026]

Section 3. Delisting

§59. Methods of Applying Formality Condition for Delisting

(1) "The confirmation letter of the auditor specified in the Enforcement Rules" in the proviso to the part other than each subparagraph of [§54(1)1] of the Regulation shall mean attached [Annex: Form No. 31].

(2) In cases where a common stock-listed corporation spins off to convert into a holdings company but the conversion has not been completed, the reason of entire capital impairment of [§54(1)6] of the Regulation shall not apply to the business year which includes the date of the spin-off and the following business year. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

(3) In cases where a corporation fails to submit the annual, semiannual or quarterly report by the statutory deadline due to cases falling under each subparagraph in [§52(1)], the provision of [§52(1)] shall apply mutatis mutandis, so that the respective period under each subparagraph of [§52(1)] shall be added to the statutory submission deadlines for the relevant report under subparagraphs 1, 1-2, 6 and 7 of [§54(1)] of the Regulation. (Amended on December 9, 2022; July 9, 2025)

§60. Objection to Delisting by Formality Review, etc.

(1) “Documents specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the part other than each subparagraph of [§55(1)] of the Regulation shall refer to the following documents: (Amended on December 9, 2022)

1. An application for official objection in [Annex: Form No. 28];
2. An improvement plan that includes a plan to resolve the causes for delisting. In such cases, if the causes for delisting fall under any of the following items, the matters specified in each item shall be included:
 - (a) Case of falling under the main sentence of the part other than each subparagraph of [§54(1)1] of the Regulation: The improvement plan to resolve the causes for delisting by revising the audit opinion on the relevant audit report or to receive an “unqualified” audit opinion on the audit report of the next fiscal year; and
 - (b) Case of falling under the proviso to the part other than each subparagraph of [§54(1)1] of the Regulation: The improvement plan to resolve the cause for delisting by revising the audit opinion on the relevant half-year audit report or to receive an “unqualified” audit opinion on the audit report of the relevant business year (referring to the business year in which the relevant cause for delisting has occurred).
3. Opinion statements issued by experts in the relevant fields, including lawyers, certified public accountants, appraisers, etc.; and
4. Other documents that the Exchange deems necessary in relation to the official objection.

(2) When an official objection pursuant to [§55(1)] of the Regulation has been received, unless there is a special reason, the Exchange shall hold a meeting of the Corporate Review Committee under [§55(2)] of the Regulation within twenty (20) days (based on business days) from the date of receiving the concerned objection and make a deliberation and resolution on the following matters. In such cases, the Exchange shall grant the representative of the concerned common-stock-listed corporation an opportunity to state his/her opinion:

1. Whether or not to delist the concerned stock;
2. Feasibility of the improvement plan, whether or not to grant the improvement period, and if granted, the length of improvement period; and

3. Whether or not to suspend the trading of concerned stock and if suspended, the period of trading suspension.

(3) In cases where an improvement period is granted pursuant to [§55(2)] of the Regulation, the improvement period may not exceed six (6) months unless there is a special reason. Provided that, in the case where a cause for delisting corresponds to audit opinion not up to standards of [§54(1)1] of the Regulation, the improvement period may not exceed one (1) year unless there are special reasons. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

(4) The Exchange may examine whether the improvement plan is implemented based on the annual report, semi-annual report, quarterly report, etc.

(5) In cases where the improvement period granted pursuant to [§55(2)] of the Regulation is expired, the common-stock-listed corporation shall submit the following documents within fifteen (15) days (based on business days) after the end of the improvement period. Provided that, in case where the concerned common-stock-listed corporation files an application before the end of the improvement period pursuant to [§55(3)3] of the Regulation, the following documents shall be submitted on the relevant application date:

1. An improvement plan implementation statement;
2. A written confirmation on the outcome of implementation of the improvement plan issued by experts in the relevant fields such as lawyers, certified public accountants or appraisers; and
3. Other documents that the Exchange deems necessary for the review of implementation of the improvement plan.

(6) The Exchange shall hold the Corporate Review Committee under [§55(3)] of the Regulation within twenty (20) days (based on business days) from the date of submitting the documents under paragraph (5) unless there is a special reason. In such cases, the Corporate Review Committee shall make a deliberation and resolution on whether to delist or not by reflecting the implementation of the improvement plan.

(7) The Exchange shall notify the relevant common-stock-listed corporation of the result of the deliberation and resolution in writing within three (3) days (based on business days) from the date of the deliberation and resolution by the Corporate Review Committee pursuant to [§55(2) and §55(3)] of the Regulation.

(8) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (6), in cases where an event that may have a significant effect on the deliberation of the Corporate Review Committee such as court judgments or decisions on lawsuits, submissions of audit reports, etc. is scheduled to occur after the period during which the Corporate Review Committee is to be held under paragraph (2) or (6), the Exchange may extend the period for holding the Corporate Review Committee within twenty (20) days (based on business days).

(9) A common-stock-listed corporation may not file another objection to the decision on delisting pursuant to [§55(2) and (3)] of the Regulation.

(10) In cases where, before the deliberation and resolution of the Corporate Review Committee noted in [§55(3)] of the Regulation on whether or not to delist in relation to a delisting cause under any of the following subparagraphs that has already occurred, an official objection is filed as a delisting cause occurs additionally, the Corporate Review Committee under [§55(3)] of the Regulation shall make a combined deliberation and resolution for the delisting cause that occurred later. Provided that, this provision shall not apply when the Exchange deems that the combined deliberation is not appropriate considering the circumstances of the deliberation or other situations. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

1. Delisting cause due to auditor's opinion not up to standards pursuant to [§54(1)1] of the Regulation
2. Delisting cause due to failure of submitting regular report pursuant to [§54(1)7] of the Regulation

(11) In cases where the Corporate Review Committee conducts a combined deliberation pursuant to the main sentence of paragraph (10), the date of filing the objection against the delisting cause that occurred later shall be regarded as the date of filing the objection pursuant to [§55(2)] of the Regulation, and the procedures noted in [§55(2) through §55(4)] of the Regulation and paragraphs (2) through (9) of this Article shall apply mutatis mutandis. (Amended on December 9, 2022)

(12) In cases where the Corporate Review Committee conducts a combined deliberation pursuant to the main sentence of paragraph (10), the Exchange shall notify the relevant common-stock-listed corporation in writing without delay.

(13) "Cases where the Enforcement Rules stipulates that the Corporate Review Committee's deliberation and resolution is deemed not necessary" in [§55(4)] of the Regulation shall refer to the cases falling under any of the following subparagraphs: (Amended on December 9, 2022)

1. Case that falls under any of the following items, as a case where a cause of auditor's opinion not up to standards under [§54(1)1] of the Regulation occurs:
 - (a) Where the Exchange grants an improvement period until the tenth (10th) day from the next day of the statutory submission deadline of annual report of the following business year (refers to the business year that includes half-year period in which the cause of delisting occurs, in the case of the proviso to the part other than each item of [§54(1)1] of the Regulation; hereinafter the same in this subparagraph) in accordance with a formal objection. Provided that, in the case where there is a change in the concerned audit opinion during the improvement period or unqualified opinion on the audit report of the following business year, the improvement period is deemed to have been granted by the day of submission of that audit report pursuant to Disclosure Regulation.
 - (b) Where a corporation falls under the cause of listing maintenance review under [§56(1)13] of the Regulation as the concerned cause of delisting is resolved through a change of audit opinion on the concerned audit report or by having unqualified opinion on the audit report of the following business year. (Amended on July 9, 2025)

2. Case where, as a case where the improvement period was granted by filing an official objection for a cause due to failing to submit regular report under [§54(1)7] of the Regulation, the Exchange recognizes that the cause of delisting is resolved by submitting all the unsubmitted regular reports within the improvement period.

§60-2. Postponement of Delisting

(1) The auditor's opinion (hereinafter referred to as the "auditor's opinion" in this Article) noted in [§55-2(1)3] of the Regulation shall be prepared by the auditor in accordance with the Annex Form No. 31-2.

(2) Unless there are special circumstances, the Exchange shall convene the Corporate Review Committee noted in the main sentence of [§55-2(1)] of the Regulation within 20 days (based on business days) from the date of receipt of the auditor's opinion noted in paragraph (1).

(3) If a listed company fails to submit an auditor's opinion within the deadline stipulated in [§55-2(1)3] of the Regulation, or if the Corporate Review Committee noted in paragraph (2) determines that there is no need to postpone delisting, the Exchange shall proceed with delisting procedures such as final trading, etc.

[July 9, 2025]

§61. Methods of Applying Criteria for Listing Maintenance Review

(1) "The specific criteria for judgment, etc." in the latter part other than each subparagraph of [§56(1)] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following subparagraphs: (Amended on December 9, 2022; June 14, 2024; July 9, 2025)

2. In the case where a court ruling or decision that has a significant impact on the implementation of the improvement plan is scheduled and it is necessary to confirm it. (Amended on July 9, 2025)

(6) During the improvement period, the Exchange may inspect the implementation of the improvement plan by reviewing an annual report, semi-annual report, quarterly report, etc.

(7) Pursuant to [§57(8)] of the Regulation, the Exchange shall notify the relevant common-stock-listed corporation of the result of deliberation and resolution in writing within three (3) days (based on business days) from the date of deliberation and resolution of the Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee.

(8) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (5), in cases where an event that may have a significant effect on the result of the deliberation, such as where court judgments or decisions on lawsuits, submission of audit reports, etc., is scheduled to occur after the period during which the Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee is to be held pursuant to paragraphs (1) or (5), the Exchange may extend the period within twenty (20) days (based on business days).

(9) The occurrence of a formality condition for delisting under [§54] of the Regulation shall not affect the procedures of listing maintenance review under [§57] of the Regulation and the objection against delisting under [§58] of the Regulations. (February 27, 2025)

(10) The representative of the concerned common-stock-listed corporation may attend the meeting of Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee and express his/her opinion.

(11) The Exchange shall organize the Corporate Review Committee with specialists from the academia, legal and accounting fields who are able to conduct the deliberation of the listing maintenance review in an objective manner. In such cases, the details of the operation of the Corporate Review Committee shall be separately specified by the Exchange.

§63. Procedures of Objection against Delisting by Listing Maintenance Review

(1) “Documents stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in [§58(1)] of the Regulation shall refer to the following documents:

1. Application for objection in [Annex 28];
2. Improvement plan to resolve the cause for delisting;
3. Opinion letters of experts, such as lawyers, certified accountants, appraisers, etc. in the fields; and
4. Other documents that the Exchange deems necessary in relation to an objection.

(2) The Exchange shall hold the Market Committee pursuant to [§58(2)] of the Regulation, unless there is a special reason, within twenty (20) days (based on business days) from the date of receiving the objection under [§58(1)] of the Regulation to deliberate and decide on the matters specified in each of the following subparagraph:

1. Whether to delist the concerned stock;
2. Feasibility of the improvement plan, whether to grant the improvement period, and if granted, the length of improvement period; and
3. Whether to suspend the trading of concerned stock and if suspended, the period of trade suspension.

(3) In cases where the Exchange holds the Market Committee pursuant to [§58(2)] of the Regulation, it shall grant the representative of the concerned common-stock-listed corporation an opportunity to state his/her opinion.

(4) In the case of granting an improvement period through the deliberation and resolution of the Market Committee pursuant to [§58(2)] of the Regulation, the improvement period may not exceed six (6) months unless there is a special reason, and the total period of improvement granted pursuant to [§62(3)] may not exceed one (1) year in total. (Amended on February 27, 2025; July 9, 2025; March 31, 2026)

(5) In cases where the improvement period granted pursuant to paragraph (4) has expired, the relevant common-stock-listed corporation shall submit the following documents to the Exchange within fifteen (15) days (based on business days) after the end of the improvement period

1. An improvement plan implementation statement;

2. A written confirmation on the outcome of implementation of the improvement plan issued by experts in the relevant fields such as lawyers, certified public accountants, appraisers, etc.; and
3. Other documents that the Exchange deems necessary for the review of implementation of the improvement plan.

(6) The Exchange shall hold the Market Committee within twenty (20) days (based on business days) from the date of receiving the documents under paragraph (5) unless there is a special reason. In this case, the Market Committee held may grant an additional improvement period of up to three (3) months if any of subparagraphs in §62(5)] apply, and paragraph (5) and the main sentence of this paragraph shall apply to the deliberation procedure after the end of the improvement period. (Amended on July 9, 2025)

(7) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (6), in cases where an event that may have a significant effect on the result of the deliberation, such as court judgments or decisions on lawsuits, submission of audit reports, etc., is scheduled to occur after the period during which the Corporate Review Committee or the Market Committee is to be held pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (6), the Exchange may extend the period within twenty (20) days (based on business days).

(8) During the improvement period, the Exchange may inspect the implementation of the improvement plan by reviewing an annual report, semi-annual report, quarterly report, etc.

(9) A common-stock-listed corporation may not file another objection to the decision on delisting under paragraphs (2) through (4) of [§58] of the Regulation.

(10) The Exchange shall notify the relevant common-stock-listed corporation of the result of deliberation and resolution in writing within three (3) days (based on business days) from the date of deliberation and resolution of the Market Committee pursuant to paragraphs (2) through (4) of [§58] of the Regulation.

CHAPTER V. SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

§83. Submission of Documents of Foreign Companies

(1) Pursuant to [§87] of the Regulation, documents to be submitted by foreign companies shall be prepared in Korean language. Provided that, in cases where the Exchange deems it necessary, the attached documents may be written in English, and in such cases, a summary in Korean shall be attached.

(2) Pursuant to [§87] of the Regulation, in the details of the documents submitted by foreign companies, matters regarding the amount shall be expressed in Korean currency. In such cases, it shall be the amount converted into Korean Won on the basis of the basic exchange rate determined and published pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Transaction Regulation as of the base date of the financial information.

§84. Listing Fees and Annual Dues

Pursuant to [§88(2)] of the Regulation, the imposition criteria, the fee rate, the payment timing, the exemption criteria, and other necessary matters of listing fees and annual dues shall be stipulated in [Annex 14].

§85. Criteria for Industry Classification

(1) Pursuant to [§89] of the Regulation, the Exchange shall classify industries by business types and codes specified in [Annex 11] based on the Korean Standard Industrial Classification (hereinafter referred to as “the Korean Standard Industrial Classification”) published by the Commissioner of Statistics Korea in accordance with the Statistics Act.

(2) The industry classification in paragraph (1) shall be carried out by the following methods:

1. In cases where a company is engaged in two (2) or more businesses, its industry division shall be the business yielding the largest sales amount. Provided that, in cases where the Exchange deems it necessary, it may be classified into the business yielding the highest added value;
2. In cases where the classification method specified in the subparagraph 1 is difficult to apply, the factors such as the number of employees and facilities shall be taken into consideration in determining the industry classification;
3. In cases where it is difficult to classify the industrial division because its business details are not clear, it shall be classified under the other sector of similar industry; and
4. In the case of a holding company, if the proportion of the sales of a specific industry sector is 50/100 or more on the consolidated financial statements, it shall be classified into the relevant industry. Provided that, the holding company may submit documents such as the management plans concerning the industry classification, and the Exchange may make the industry classification by comprehensively considering the realization of public interests and protection of investors, etc.

(3) In cases where a KOSDAQ-listed corporation falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the industry classification of the corporation shall be changed. Provided that, no change in the industry classification shall take place if the Exchange deems that the industry reclassification is unnecessary in view of such factors as the history and business forecast of the concerned corporation and the change of sub-sector within the same sector may not be made:

1. Case where the reclassification of industrial division is necessary as a result of a change in the Korea Standard Industrial Classification;
2. Case where the main business has been changed due to a merger, spin-off, acquisition or transfer of business, etc.;
3. Case where the level of sales ratio for main products has changed for the past two (2) business years in a row, and the growth within the existing industrial division cannot be expected;
4. Case where there was a significant change in the level of sales ratio of main products in the latest one (1) business year due to the reorganization of business structure, a change of main business, etc., and the Exchange deems that the reclassification is necessary upon receiving the request for industry reclassification from the concerned listed corporation;

5. Case where the industrial classification has been changed by the laws; and
6. Other cases where the reclassification of industry is deemed necessary.

(4) The timing of reclassifying the industry sectors of KOSDAQ-listed corporations shall be each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Case of subparagraphs 1, 5 and 6 of paragraph (3): The time when the relevant fact has been confirmed;
2. Case of subparagraph 2 of paragraph (3): The time when the document proving that the main business has been changed as a result of the concerned merger, spin-off, business acquisition/transfer, etc. was submitted; and
3. Case of subparagraphs 3 and 4 of paragraph(3): The first trading day of the fifth (5th) month counted from the month following the month which includes the fiscal closing date of the KOSDAQ-listed corporation. Provided that, if a KOSDAQ-listed corporation fails to submit its annual report by the statutory deadline due to cases falling under each subparagraph in [§52(1)], the timing of industry reclassification for the corporation and the submission deadline of review materials required for industry classification may be separately determined by the Exchange.

(5) The Exchange shall classify the industries of KOSDAQ-listed foreign companies by applying paragraphs (1) through (4) mutatis mutandis. Provided that, the Exchange may change the time of industry reclassification and the submission deadline for materials required for industry classification in consideration of the submission deadline for annual report under the laws of the home country of KOSDAQ-listed foreign companies.

(6) The Exchange may request KOSDAQ-listed corporations to provide the materials needed for industry reclassification.

(7) KOSDAQ-listed corporations shall submit the materials necessary for the industry classification under subparagraphs 3 and 4 of paragraph (3) to the Exchange by the statutory submission deadline for annual reports.

§86. Opinion Gathering

The opinion gathering pursuant to [§90] of the Regulation shall be governed by the provisions of [§5] of the Internal Regulations Management Regulation and [§6] of the Regulations Management Regulation.

[Annex No. 6] Qualitative Criteria for Preliminary Listing Review

(Amended on September 27, 2022; December 28, 2023; July 9, 2025; November 24, 2025; July 1, 2026; July 31, 2026)

Qualitative Criteria for Preliminary Listing Review

(Pertaining to [§27])

1. Corporate sustainability

Corporate sustainability shall be recognized in terms of business status, financial condition, technical capability, growth potential, and other management environments of a corporation.

(a) Standard companies

Review items	Focal points for review
Business situations	• Industrial growth potential and trend such as industrial growth cycle, market size, competitive situation, entry barrier, etc. • Regulatory environment of industries at home and abroad, and effects of the government policy • Change factors of sales amount and profits of the past, and possibility of increase in sales and profits in the future • Possibility of maintaining business relationship with major customers and of securing new customers • Size of sale credit and inventory assets, and appropriateness of management system thereof
Financial conditions	• Level of financial stability compared to the industrial group and competing companies • Liquidity status considering the size and trend of cash flow from the business operation • Possibility of deterioration of financial status due to contingent liabilities
Technology	• Technological competitiveness such as intellectual property, level of technical professionals, degree of technological perfection and competitive advantage • Competitiveness in commercialization of technology held or under development
Growth potential	• Rationality of corporate growth strategy and business plan for growth • Possibility of expanding business by strengthening competitiveness of main products and entering new businesses • Rationality of the use of funds raised by public offering and possibility of growth by the influx of funds
Other management environments	• Impact that lawsuits or legal conflicts relating to patent, management right, etc., if any, may have on corporate management • Impact that management's expertise such as level of experience and capital participation by management may have on corporate growth

(b) Companies with no realized profit

Review items	Focal points for review
Business situations	• Industrial growth potential and trend such as industrial growth cycle, market size, competitive situation, entry barrier, etc. • Regulatory environment of industries at home and abroad, and effects of the government policy • Size and trend of loss, and validity* of the cause of the loss * Losses caused by structural problems such as overall decrease in sales, or incurred in the process of growth for R&D, expansion of production facilities, etc. • Possibility of expansion of transactions with main customers, and possibility to turn profitable through securing new customers, etc. • Size of sale credit and inventory assets, and appropriateness of management system thereof
Financial conditions	• Level of financial stability compared to the industrial group and competing companies • Size of decrease in cash flow from losses and whether or not to secure liquidity considering the trend of future growth • Possibility of deterioration of financial status due to contingent liabilities
Growth potential	• Differentiated business models compared to competitors and competitiveness of the business models (in the areas of production of services and products, sales distribution, etc.) • Corporate growth strategies and rationality of business strategy* for growth * Recruitment of personnel, planning of facility investment, securing of patent rights, etc. • Status of outside investors' assessment of corporate growth potential and the basis for the assessment * Including status of financing from external investors • Possibility of expanding business by strengthening competitiveness of main products and entering new businesses • Rationality of the purpose of use of funds (facility expansion, etc. to secure growth potential) and effect of influx of funds raised by public offering
Other management environments	• Impacts that lawsuits or legal conflicts relating to patent, management right, etc. may have on corporate management • Influence of management's expertise and capital participation on corporate growth • Whether the system for investor protection such as granting of put-back options is sufficient

※ If the Exchange deems it necessary given the business structure of the companies-with-no-profit, it may be possible to apply both the qualitative criteria for standard companies and those for companies with no realized profit simultaneously.

(c) Technology growth companies

Review items	Focal points for review
Business situations	• Industrial growth potential and trend such as industrial growth cycle, market size, competitive situation, entry barrier, etc. • Possibilities of entering or expanding existing markets and creating new markets • Possibilities of maintaining existing customers or securing new customers • Regulatory environment of industries at home and abroad, and effects of the government policy • Influence of internal competence such as management's knowledge and experience on business continuity and future growth
Technology/ Business feasibility	■ Innovative technology companies¹⁾ • Completeness of technology including stage of development, self-reliance, difficulty of imitation, etc. • Competitive advantage in terms of technological differentiation, level R&D, size and appropriateness of R&D investment, status of possessing intellectual property rights, etc. • Level of technological workforce, such as technological expertise, technological management ability, etc. • Competitiveness in commercialization of technology ■ Business model companies • Completion of business models in terms of degree of commercialization, realization of sales, etc. • Competitive advantage in terms of differentiation of business models, position in the market, etc. • Whether human and material resources essential to business are secured
Growth potential	• Rationality of business plans, including workforce and facility investment plans for corporate growth, securing intellectual property rights, etc. • Rationality of the purpose of use of funds raised by public offering and the effect of influx of the funds • Possibility of realizing revenue including sales and operating income within a certain period after listing
Other management environments	• Impacts that lawsuits or legal conflicts relating to patent, management right, etc. may have on corporate management • Impact that the contingent liabilities arising from the terms of major contracts related to business operation, etc. may have on management

Notes:

(1) In cases where the outcome of the assessment for a domestic company (excluding foreign holding company located in Korea) conducted by specialized assessment institutions is a grade of 'AA' or above, the review items of 'Technology/Business feasibility' shall not apply thereto. In such cases, when the overall assessment grades submitted by the specialized assessment institutions are different from each other, the higher grade shall be the final assessment grade, but, in the case where even one assessment institution has rated 'BBB' or lower, the lower assessment grade shall be the final grade.

※ If the Exchange deems it necessary considering the business structure of the technology growth companies, it may be possible to apply both the qualitative criteria for ordinary companies and those for technology growth companies simultaneously.

2. Transparency and stability of the business management

Transparency and stability of the business management shall be recognized in light of corporate governance, internal control system, disclosure system, trading with interested parties, stock trading before listing, etc. of a corporation.

Review items	Focal points for review
Corporate governance	• Whether the decisions on important matters are made autonomously by establishing independent corporate governance structure. • In cases where there is an unlawful act by the management, the impact that such act may have on corporate management. • Whether there is a history of significant actions by the largest shareholder or the management that are against the interests of the listing applicant. • In the case of companies issuing multiple voting stocks, the appropriateness of the issuance of multiple voting stocks and whether checks and balances* are in place to prevent abuse of voting rights.
Internal control system	• Level of establishment and operation of internal control system such as the regulation on the operation of the board of directors, etc. • Whether there are any important errors or unusual matters confirmed through accounting audit or tax investigation • In the case of a holding company, the appropriateness of establishment and operation of management systems of its subsidiaries with regard to appointment of executives, business performance reporting, conclusion of business management contract, etc. • Whether it has human resources, internal control procedures such as accounting regulations, etc. and accounting systems, established and operated to produce reliable accounting data.
Corporate disclosure	• Whether work force and organization are constructed in order to perform the disclosure duties stipulated in relevant laws and regulations (in case where the largest shareholder is a paper company, the disclosure duties relating to the material business matters of the paper company shall be included.) • Whether the disclosure system to prevent the usage of material undisclosed information is established.
Trading with interested parties	• Whether the background, conditions, procedures, etc. for trading with the interested parties comply with relevant laws and regulations. • Fairness of conditions of the trading with the interested parties compared to the trading with a third person
Stock trading before listing	• Possibility of infringing the interests of shareholders in light of the necessity of stock trading before listing, legality of procedures, appropriateness of trading price, etc. • Whether there is any trading using undisclosed information
Management stability	• Whether the largest shareholder, etc. (in the case of a paper company, a de facto controlling stockholder shall be included) holds stable amount of shares • In the case of technology growth companies, whether the stability of management is maintained until profit realization • If there are disputes over management rights, the impact that such disputes may have on corporate management. • Whether it is possible to maintain the continuity of corporate management considering the change of management, restructuring of business, etc. in the case where the largest stockholder is changed • If there is a secondary offering, the appropriateness of the secondary offering in terms of the demand for financing, retaining of management control, etc. of the listing applicant. • In the case of companies issuing multiple voting stocks, the possibility of maintaining business continuity after the conversion of multiple voting stocks into common stocks

- * Review whether to establish a subcommittee within the board to deliberate on matters such as the recommendation of outside director candidates and transactions related to the largest shareholder or the largest voting holder

3. Protection of investors

It shall be recognized that the realization of public interests and the protection of investors are not harmed.

Review items	Focal points for review
Public interests and investor protection	• Whether the application for preliminary listing review and the attached documents contain any false statement or presentation of a material fact or omits to state or present a material fact. • In case where the largest shareholder or the management has ever sold or taken over management rights of a listed corporation, whether the market integrity was impeded in such processes or not. • [Deleted on July 31, 2026] • [Deleted on July 31, 2026] • In addition, any likelihood of infringing the realization of public interests and the protection of investors.

- ※ This requirement may not apply if the parent company is changed or the core business sector of the listing applicant is changed after the spin-off.

3-2. Special Provisions of Duplicate Listing

This special provision applies when the applicant for listing is a subsidiary, etc. of a listed company (referring to a KOSPI-listed company and a KOSDAQ-listed company; hereinafter the same applies in this subparagraph).

(a) Independence of Business

In applying the criteria of subparagraph 1 (corporate sustainability), a comprehensive judgment shall be made by considering whether the major products or services, relevant markets or sales outlets, business models, etc. are identical to those of the parent company, the role in the relevant industry or supply chain, and whether independent product development or commercialization has taken place.

(b) Independence of Management

In applying the criteria of Subparagraph 2 (transparency and stability of business management), a comprehensive judgment shall be made by considering not only the status of positions held concurrently by the largest shareholder, executives/officers, and employees of the listed company, such as the board of directors, auditors (or audit committee), and management, but also whether the personnel and management systems and decision-making procedures regarding major management issues are independent from the listed company.

(c) Investor Protection

In applying the criteria of subparagraph 3 (protection of investors), the following matters shall be additionally reviewed.

(1) Whether the board of directors of a publicly listed company has faithfully fulfilled its obligations, such as evaluating the impact on shareholders, preparing shareholder protection measures, communicating with shareholders or confirming shareholder consent, resolution on whether the Board of Directors approves the listing of subsidiaries, etc. and notifying subsidiaries pursuant to [§19-2] of the Regulations (in the case of a KOSPI-listed company, this refers to [§78-2] of the KOSPI Market Listing Regulations), and disclosing information pursuant to [§6(1)3(a)(xi)] of the Disclosure Regulation (in the case of a KOSPI-listed company, this refers to [§7(1)3(a)(viii)] of the KOSPI Market Disclosure Regulation), and has passed a resolution to approve the listing applicant's pursuit of listing in consideration of such matters.

(2) Whether shareholder protection efforts commensurate with the necessity of protecting general shareholders of a listed company (referring to shareholders excluding major shareholders, etc.; hereinafter the same) have been implemented.

(i) The necessity of protecting general shareholders is determined by comprehensively considering the necessity of listing the applicant separately from the listed company, the industrial characteristics and future growth potential of the applicant, the background, structure, and duration of the relationship formed between the listed company and the applicant, the contribution of the listed company to the applicant in terms of tangible and intangible assets or physical and human resources, the proportion of the applicant in the listed company's assets, sales, and operating profit, the degree of dilution of the listed company's equity resulting from the applicant's listing, the potential for conflicts of interest between the controlling shareholder and general shareholders of the listed company, and the impact of the applicant's listing on the development of the capital market.

(ii) Whether shareholder protection efforts have been implemented is determined by comprehensively considering communication efforts with general shareholders, such as IRs, shareholder meetings, surveys, and disclosures, as well as specific shareholder protection measures, including cash and in-kind dividends, share buybacks, plans to enhance corporate value, and other commitments.

(iii) Whether efforts to protect shareholders have been implemented may be determined by considering whether the shareholders of a listed company have consented to shareholder protection measures, etc., and if there is consent from the shareholders of the listed company, it is presumed that the requirement of (2) is satisfied.

(iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of (iii), if the proportion of the listing applicant relative to the assets, sales, and operating profit of the listed company is below the standard set separately by the Exchange (excluding cases where the proportion of the listing applicant's estimated enterprise value is above the standard set separately by the Exchange and the Exchange deems it necessary), the consent of the shareholders of the listed company shall not be considered.

(v) Notwithstanding the provisions of (iii) and (iv), if the applicant for listing is a company established through a split-off of a listed company (referring to a split-off pursuant to Article 530-12 of the Commercial Act, including business transfer, contribution in kind, etc.) and there is no consent from the shareholders of the listed company, it shall be deemed that the requirements of (2) are not satisfied.

(vi) Whether the shareholders of a publicly listed company consent to the shareholder protection measures, etc., pursuant to (iii) and (v) shall be determined by a majority of the voting rights of the shareholders present and at least one-fourth of the total number of issued shares [shareholders holding shares exceeding 3% of the total number of issued shares, excluding non-voting shares, (in the case of the largest shareholder, shares held by their related parties and other persons falling under each subparagraph of Article 38, Paragraph 1 of the Enforcement Decree of the Commercial Act shall be aggregated), shall exclude the shares exceeding that amount in the calculation].

(3) Other standards that the Exchange deems necessary for investor protection, etc.

	4) Business scalability, such as the possibility of linkages with other industries 5) Whether partnerships or cooperative relationships have been established with major domestic and international cybersecurity-related institutions, organizations, companies, and academic societies
(d) Other management environments	1) Impact on corporate management in the event of litigation or disputes related to patents, management rights, etc. 2) Impact on management of contingent liabilities arising from the terms of major business-related contracts, etc. 3) Whether a management system for preventing infringement incidents and a response system in the event of an incident have been established

Note:

1. This subparagraph applies only to companies recognized by the Exchange as next-generation cybersecurity industry enterprises, based on a comprehensive consideration of factors such as relevance to government projects related to the cybersecurity industry, the proportion of revenue related to the cybersecurity industry in total revenue, the level of R&D costs and personnel related to the cybersecurity industry, and the general perception and evaluation of the applicant company by the relevant industry.

2. In items (a)1)b)(iii) and (a)1)c)(iv) of this subparagraph, “cyber resilience” refers to the capability (immunity, recovery) at the organizational level for operating cyber assets.

[Annex No. 8] Criteria for Identification of Corporate Insolvency Risks

Criteria for Identification of Corporate Insolvency Risks

(Pertaining to [§48])

1. The Exchange measures the degree of insolvency of a KOSDAQ-listed corporation (excluding special purpose acquisition companies; hereinafter the same) based on the following variables for identifying corporate insolvency risk, criteria for each variable, and weight for each variable as below which have significant influences on corporate insolvency.

Variables, Criteria and Weights for Identification of Corporate Insolvency Risks

Classification	Variables	Criteria ⁽¹⁾	Weights
Financial Variables	① Dependency on short-term borrowings	-	0.569
	② Ratio of operating cash flow to total assets	-	-2.332
	③ Profit from ongoing business before tax	loss	1.078
	④ Interest coverage ratio	less than 1	0.426
	⑤ Impairment of capital	30% or more	0.940
	⑥ Amount of sales	less than KRW 5 bil.	0.415
	⑦ Turnover of total assets	-	-0.211
Qualitative Variables	⑧ Change of the largest shareholder (times)	twice or more for three years	0.282
	⑨ Change of the representative director (times)	three times or more for three years	0.577
	⑩ Paid-in capital increase through third party allotment (times)	twice or more for three years	0.093
	⑪ Issuance of convertible bonds, bonds with warrants, exchangeable bonds via third party allotment (times)	twice or more for three years	0.511
	⑫ Unfaithful disclosures (times)	twice or more for three years	0.327
	⑬ Shareholding ratio of the largest shareholder, etc.	less than 25%	0.751

	⑭ Occurrence of the causes for uncertainty about survival as a going concern based on the audit report ⁽²⁾	occurrence of uncertainty	0.737
--	---	---------------------------	-------

Notes:

(1) Criteria refer to the standard value for judging whether each variable has a significant effect on the symptoms of insolvency. The value of the variable of the criteria shall be 1 in cases where it satisfies the criteria or 0 where it does not satisfy the criteria. However, for those variables without a criterion, the measured value of the variable shall be the value of the variable and in cases where the measured value is out of the upper or lower limit below, the upper or lower limit shall be deemed as the value of the variable.

Variable	Upper Limit	Lower Limit
Dependency on short-term borrowings	2.653	0.000
Ratio of operating cash flow to total assets	0.318	-0.323
Turnover of total assets	2.808	0.000

(2) It shall include the case where the audit opinion is “unqualified”, but the uncertainty about the survival as a going concern is stated in the audit report as a special note.

2. The Exchange shall calculate comprehensive measurement values of insolvency risks via the method below in accordance with the insolvency scores measured by variable for the KOSDAQ-listed corporations and designate investment attention issues by taking into account whether or not the comprehensive measurement values surpass the comprehensive threshold value⁽¹⁾.

Method of calculating comprehensive measurement value of corporate insolvency risks⁽²⁾

Insolvency score (z) = $\sum$ (value of variable by each value x weight by variable) - 4.494

Comprehensive measurement value on insolvency risk = $ez \div (1 + ez)$

Notes:

(1) The comprehensive threshold value shall be 0.7.

(2) e means the natural constant (the base of the natural logarithm).

3. The Exchange shall notify the KOSDAQ-listed corporation that was designated as an investment attention issue of the result of designation and the relevant variables for identification of insolvency risks, etc.

[Annex No. 9] Timing of Designation as Investment Attention Issue and Release Therefrom

(Amended on December 9, 2022)

Timing of Designation as Investment Attention Issue and Release Therefrom

(Pertaining to [§48] and [§69])

Cause of Designation	Designation Time	Release Time
1. Periodic Designation
1) Falling under the criteria for identification of corporate insolvency risks in [Annex No. 8] {[§52(1)1] and[§66(1)] of the Regulation}	On the first trading day of May of the relevant year	In cases where it was confirmed that the issue does not fall under the investment attention issue pursuant to criteria for identification of corporate insolvency risks, the first trading of May of the relevant year.
2. Timely Designation
1) Result of review and audit on the operation of internal accounting management system {[§52(1)2(a)] and[§66(1)] of the Regulation}	The day following the day on which the relevant fact was confirmed in accordance with [§6(1)2(e)(i)d)] of the Disclosure Regulation	The day following the day on which the resolution of the cause of designation has been confirmed by the audit report of the following business year

However, in cases where the Exchange has extended the submission deadline by acknowledging the unavoidable reasons, it shall be the day following the extended submission deadline.	In cases where the largest shareholder after the change falls under [§47(2)], the day following the day on which it was confirmed that the obligation of mandatory holding was fulfilled. However, if one (1) year has elapsed from the date of designation, it shall be the day when one (1) year has elapsed.
6) Violation of mandatory holding requirement by the changed largest shareholder {[§52(1)2(f)] of the Regulation}	The day when it was confirmed that the obligation of mandatory holding was not fulfilled	The day following the day when it was confirmed that the obligation of mandatory holding was fulfilled. However, if one (1) year has elapsed from the date of designation, it shall be the day when one (1) year has elapsed
7) Violation of appointment, change, dismissal, etc. of auditor of a KOSDAQ-listed foreign company {[§66(2)] of the Regulation}	The day following the day when the relevant fact was confirmed pursuant to [§20(1)9] of the Disclosure Regulation	The day following the day when it was confirmed that the cause has been resolved pursuant to [§20(1)9] of the Disclosure Regulation after the date of designation

8) Operating loss {[§52(1)2(g)] of the Regulation}	The day following the day when the relevant fact was confirmed by an audit report	The day following the day when it was confirmed that the cause has been resolved by an audit report at the end of business year that arrives after the date of designation
9) Capital impairment {[§52(1)2(h)] of the Regulation}	The day following the day when the relevant fact was confirmed by a semi-annual review report (including an audit report)	The day following the day when it was confirmed that the rate of capital impairment is less than 50/100 by a review report (including an audit report) at the end of a half-year period or an audit report at the end of the business year that arrives after the date of designation
10) Equity capital not up to standards {[§52(1)2(i)] of the Regulation}	The day following the day when the relevant fact was confirmed by a semi-annual review report (including an audit report)	The day following the day when it was confirmed that the equity capital is KRW 1 billion or more by a review report (including an audit report) at the end of a half-year period or an audit report at the end of the business year that arrives after the date of designation
11) Auditor's opinion not up to standards in half-year period {[§52(1)2(j)] of the Regulation}	The day following the day when the relevant fact was confirmed by a semi-annual review report (including an audit report)	The day following the day when it was confirmed that the cause has been resolved by a review report (including an audit report) at the end of a half-year period or an audit report at the end of the business year, that arrives after the date of designation

Notes:

(1) In cases where an issue is determined to maintain listing status (including the cases of being excluded from listing maintenance review; hereinafter the same) after it went through the listing maintenance review to which it was subject because it was designated as an investment attention issue due to a cause of [2. 4] , the issue concerned shall be released from the designation as an investment attention issue under the concerned cause though the time for the release has not arrived. In such cases, the date of the release from the investment attention issue designation shall be the next day of the date when the listing maintenance is determined.

(2) [2. 7)] applies to KOSDAQ-listed foreign corporations.

[Annex No. 10] Timing of Designation as Administrative Issue and Release Therefrom

(Amended on December 9, 2022; July 9, 2025; November 24, 2025; March 16, 2026; July 1, 2026)

Timing of Designation as Administrative Issue and Release Therefrom

(Pertaining to [§58], [§69], [§72], [§80], [§82-5], and [§82-9] of the Enforcement Rules)

1. Common stocks, foreign stocks, etc., special purpose acquisition company stocks

Designation Cause	Designation Time	Release Time
1) Sales not up to standards {{§53(1)1} and {§67(1)} of the Regulation}	The day following the day when it was confirmed through the audit report	The day following the day when it was confirmed through the audit report of the following business year that the sales amount of the latest business year is sales criterion under [§53(1)1] or more. However, in cases where it was confirmed that it falls under any of the [§53(1)1(c)] of the Regulation, it shall be the day following the date of such confirmation.

Supplementary listing	Market capitalization of new stocks or additional stocks to be listed (the amount determined by multiplying the number of new or additional stocks to be listed by the closing price of previous day)
Re-listing	Re-listing amount (the amount determined by multiplying the number of stocks to be re-listed by the appraisal price) Appraisal price: The appraisal price under [§17(1)3] of the Enforcement Rules of the KOSDAQ Market Business Regulation
Listing after merger pursuant to [§2(1)1(f)(ii)] of the Regulation	The amount obtained by converting the number of stocks of the applicant for listing after merger before the merger to the number of stocks of the SPAC based on the merger ratio and multiplying it by the closing price on the last trading day of stocks of the SPAC

2. The initial listing fees and relisting fees shall be imposed on the aggregate amount of common stocks and different classes of stocks.

3. The listing fees for supplementary listing shall be determined per application date of supplementary listing.

4. The fees for supplementary listing shall be applied to the case of change of stock type resulting from exercise of conversion rights.

5. When determining the listing fees per KRW 1 billion of listing amount, the amount less than KRW 1 billion shall be rounded up.

6. In case where an applicant for listing change submits several applications for listing change on a same day, listing change fees shall be determined by handling the applications filed on the same day as a single case.

(b) Subscription warrants

	Listing fees
Initial listing & supplementary listing	1/3 of the fees determined pursuant to subparagraph (a) (the minimum fee shall be KRW 50,000 and the amount less than KRW 100 shall be discarded)
Listing change	KRW 200,000 per case

Notes:

1. The market capitalization of subscription rights certificates shall be the amount determined by multiplying the closing price on the day before the listing date of underlying stock of concerned subscription rights certificate by the number of certificates to be listed.

2. Re-listing subsequent to the exercise of subscription rights certificates shall be exempted from re-listing fees.

3. In case where an applicant for listing change submits several applications for listing change on a same day, listing change fees shall be determined by handling the applications filed on the same day as a single case.

(c) Business development investment company stocks and business development investment trust beneficiary certificates

	Listing fees
Listing review	KRW 5,000,000
Initial listing & supplementary listing	1/3 of the fees determined pursuant to subparagraph (a) (the minimum fee shall be KRW 50,000 and the amount less than KRW 100 shall be discarded)
Listing change	KRW 200,000 per case

Notes: In the case of business development investment trust beneficiary certificates, market capitalization shall be deemed as trust principal amount.

2. Annual Dues

(a) Stocks, foreign stocks, DRs of foreign stocks, and different classes of stocks

Annual Dues (Amounts less than KRW 100 shall be discarded)
1. Annual dues paid regularly: On the basis of average total market capitalization of the previous year, the amount determined by applying the fee rate noted below. 2. Annual dues paid irregularly: The amount determined by prorating the annual dues for the concerned year calculated by applying the average total market capitalization as of the decision date of de-listing and the rate shown in the table below by the number of days from the first day to the day before the de-listing date of the year which includes the de-listing date.
Average total market capitalization (in KRW billion)	Fee Rates
≤10	KRW 10,000 per KRW 1 billion

>10 and ≤30	KRW 100,000 + KRW 8,000 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 10 billion
>30 and ≤50	KRW 260,000 + KRW 7,000 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 30 billion
>50 and ≤70	KRW 400,000 + KRW 6,000 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 50 billion
>70 and ≤ 100	KRW 520,000 + KRW 4,000 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 70 billion
>100 and ≤200	KRW 640,000 + KRW 2,000 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 100 billion
>200 and ≤500	KRW 840,000 + KRW 1,000 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 200 billion
>500	KRW 1,140,000 + KRW 500 per KRW 1 billion of average total market capitalization in excess of KRW 500 billion

Notes:

1. When calculating the annual dues paid regularly, in case of initial listing or re-listing, it shall be the amount determined by prorating the amount calculated according to the method shown in the table above by the number of days from the initial listing date or re-listing date to the last day of the concerned year.
2. In the case of initial listing and re-listing, the average total market capitalization shall be the average total market value of the concerned number of days.
3. The average total market capitalization shall be determined by aggregating the market capitalizations of common stocks and class shares issued by the concerned listed corporation.
4. When determining the fees per KRW 1 billion, the amount less than KRW 1 billion shall be rounded up.
5. The average total market capitalization shall be determined by averaging the market value listed. In such cases, if the trading is suspended, the market capitalization of the day immediately preceding the trading suspension date shall be regarded as the market capitalization of the trading suspension date.

(b) Subscription rights certificates, business development investment company stocks, and business development investment trust beneficiary certificates

Annual Dues
1/3 of the fees determined pursuant to subparagraph(a) (Amounts less than KRW 100 shall be discarded)

Note:

1. The average market capitalization of subscription rights certificates shall be the amount calculated by multiplying the closing price on the day before the listing date of underlying stock of concerned subscription rights certificate by the number of certificates to be listed. In such cases, if the trading is suspended, the market capitalization of the day immediately preceding the trading suspension date shall be regarded as the market capitalization of the trading suspension date.

2. In the case of business development investment trust beneficiary certificates, the average market capitalization shall be deemed as the average trust principal amount.

3. Payment Time of Listing Fees and Annual Dues

(a) Listing Fees

	Payment Time
Fees for preliminary listing review	At the time of application for preliminary listing review
Listing fees	At the time of listing application

Note: Re-listing fees may be paid by the listing date.

(b) Annual Dues

	Payment Time
Regular payments	The annual dues of the immediately preceding year for the stocks listed as at the end of the immediately preceding year shall be paid by the end of January each year.
Irregular payments	In case where securities are delisted, the annual dues for the period from the first day of the year which includes the concerned delisting date to the previous day of delisting date shall be paid before the delisting date of the securities concerned.

4. Exemption from Payment of Listing Fees and Annual Dues

The Exchange may exempt the listing fees and annual dues that fall under any of followings.

(a) Listing fees and annual dues falling under any of the followings as of the payment dates.

- (i) Listing fees and annual dues for listing change and supplementary listing of KOSDAQ-listed corporations falling under [§56(1)6] of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation;
- (ii) Supplementary listing fees, listing change fees and annual dues of the stocks (including different classes of stocks), DRs of foreign stocks and subscription warrants issued by the KOSDAQ-listed corporations who are under the rehabilitation procedures pursuant to the Debtor Rehabilitation and Bankruptcy Act (in the case of foreign stocks and DRs of foreign stocks, it shall refer to the relevant laws of home countries).

(b) Annual dues falling under any of the followings as of the imposition dates.

- (i) In case where a corporation is delisted during the period for regular payments or within three (3) months after the payment period ended (including the case where the causes for delisting have occurred, while excluding the case of being delisted after the improvement period was granted), the amount of annual dues for the period from the first day of the year which includes such delisting date to the previous day of the delisting date.

- (ii) In case where a corporation is delisted pursuant to [§54(1)2] and [§54(1)3] (limited to the cases of dissolution pursuant to Subparagraphs 5 and 6 of Article 227 of the Commercial Act), or [§54(1)6] of the Regulation, the amount of annual dues for the period from the first day of the year which includes the delisting date to the previous day of the delisting date.
- (iii) In cases where a KOSDAQ-listed corporation has a liquidity provision agreement stipulated in [§12-3(1)] of the KOSDAQ Market Business Regulation for the year that is the base for the calculation of annual dues, the amount of annual dues prorated on a daily basis for the period of liquidity provision (the amount less than KRW 100 shall be discarded).
- (c) In the case of the designated corporations that meet the requirements specified in [§26(6)], fees for preliminary listing review and listing fees (excluding fees for listing change and supplementary listing).
- (d) The fees for listing review for different classes of stocks falling under [§78(2)] of the Regulation.
- (e) The fees for listing change of subscription rights certificates pursuant to [§44(2)] and Paragraphs (2) and (3) of [§84] of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation.
- (f) Listing fees and annual dues for subscription rights certificates.
- (g) The fees for preliminary listing review and listing fees (excluding fees for listing change and supplementary listing, but including fees for listing change and supplementary listing subsequent to the listing after merge under [§2(1)1(f)] of the Regulation) of the companies falling under [§2(1)41], [§2(1)39] and [§75(2)] of the Regulation. However, the provisions of this Item shall not apply to foreign companies (including foreign holding companies located in Korea).
- (h) The annual dues (based on the regular payment in January each year) for the period of three (3) consecutive business years which include the business year in which the dates of initial listing and listing after merger of the companies falling under [§2(1)41], [§2(1)39] and [§75(2)] of the Regulation fall. However, the provisions of this Item shall not apply to foreign companies (including foreign holding companies located in Korea).
- (i) In the case of initial listing and listing after merger of a KONEX-listed corporation, fees for preliminary listing review and listing (excluding fees for listing change and supplementary listing, but including fees for listing change and supplementary listing subsequent to the listing after merge under [§2(1)1(f)] of the Regulation).
- (j) In the case of initial listing and listing after merger of a KONEX-listed corporation on the KOSDAQ Market, the annual dues (based on the regular payment in January each year) for the period of three (3) consecutive business years which include the business year to which the date of initial listing or listing after merger of the company belongs.
- (k) In addition, the listing fees and annual dues that the Exchange deems it necessary to exempt for the purpose of market administration, etc.

5. Other Matters relating to Listing Fees and Annual Dues

- (a) Notification of payment and measures against non-payment

(i) With regard to the payment of annual dues, the Exchange shall notify the listed corporations of such fact by the day two (2) weeks before the due date for the regular payments and by the day one (1) week before the delisting date for the irregular payments.

(ii) In cases where a listed corporation fails to pay the annual dues within three (3) months after the due date, the Exchange may file actions such as request for an order of payment against the concerned corporation. Provided that this provision shall not apply to issuers of delisted securities.

(b) Refund

The Exchange shall refund the listing fees to the corporation of which listing application was rejected. However, the fees for preliminary listing review shall not be refundable once the preliminary listing review process has commenced.

Standards for Imposing Penalty for Breach of Listing Agreement

1. Method for determining penalty amount

|---|
| a. The base amount is determined by considering the size of the relevant KOSDAQ-listed company. |
| b. The final penalty amount is calculated by reflecting aggravating and mitigating factors, such as the seriousness of the violation. |

2. Standards for penalty amount based on market capitalization of KOSDAQ-listed corporations

Average market capitalization over the past 1 year	Penalty base amount
KRW 50 billion or less	KRW 200 million
Over KRW 50 billion ~ up to KRW 10 trillion	KRW 500 million
Over KRW 10 trillion	KRW 800 million

3. Determination of the seriousness of violations and method of increasing or decreasing penalties

a) The seriousness of a violation is classified into three levels: high, medium, and low. In this case, the final level is determined by comprehensively considering the level of each judgment element classified according to the table below.

	Judgement elements
High	· Cases where a KOSDAQ-listed company subject to penalty enforcement has failed to fulfill its obligations at all · Cases where false data is submitted to the exchange due to intent or gross negligence, resulting in a consequence equivalent to failure to fulfill obligations
Medium	· Cases where a KOSDAQ-listed company subject to penalty has fulfilled only a portion of its obligations · Cases where a KOSDAQ-listed company subject to penalty has failed to make disclosures required during the process of fulfilling its obligations · Other cases where there are no causes corresponding to “Upper” or “Lower”
Low	· In cases where only violations such as simple procedural violations or delays in fulfilling obligations exist

b) The penalty shall be imposed based on the case where the seriousness judgment result is ‘medium’, applying Table 2, but may be increased by 25% in case of ‘high’ and decreased by 25% in case of ‘low’.

(Amended on February 14, 2022; February 17, 2022; April 29, 2022; December 28, 2023; March 16, 2026)

Written Affirmation on Mandatory Holding of Stocks, etc. (Initial Listing, etc.)

To Chairperson of Korea Exchange, mm/dd/yyyy

Date:

I and the related persons (hereinafter referred to as “the party undersigned”) hereby affirm that we will keep the following promises as the persons subject to mandatory holding falling under the provisions of [§26], [§61], [§69] and [§77] of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation in relation to initial listing of _____ Co. Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) on the KOSDAQ market.

1. The party undersigned will mandatorily hold the stocks, etc. issued by the Company (referring to the securities under [§2(1)10] of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation and including bonus stocks to be issued pursuant to [§3] of the Enforcement Rules of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation; the same hereinafter), which are owned by the party undersigned as of the day preceding the date of application for listing (hereinafter referred to as “listing application date”) under [§27], [§60], [§69] and [§76] of the KOSDAQ Market Listing Regulation, as detailed in subparagraph 5, except for the cases where the Exchange deems that it is inevitable, such as fulfillment of obligations according to statutes and M&As, etc. and will not make the accounts transfer, establishment and removal of a pledge right, sales, withdrawal, etc. of the stocks, etc. unless the Exchange deems it necessary, during the mandatory holding period.

2. The party undersigned will make mandatory holding, accounts transfer, establishment and removal of a pledge right, sales, withdrawal, etc., of the stocks, etc. owned by the party undersigned during the mandatory holding period only through the listing sponsor, who is a managing underwriter pursuant to the Regulation on Securities Underwriting Business, etc. (limited to one (1) managing underwriter in cases where there are more than one (1) managing underwriter) among listing sponsors, _____ Securities Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “the listing sponsor”) and will follow the methods and procedures for mandatory holding, account transfer, establishment and removal of a pledge right, sales, withdrawal, etc. of the relevant stocks, etc. as stipulated in the “agreement on the provision of largest shareholder’s affirmation” entered into between the Company and the listing sponsor.

3. The party undersigned will not raise any objection to the publication as a market notice by the listing sponsor of the facts if the accounts transfer, establishment and removal of a pledge right, sales, withdrawal, etc., of the stocks, etc. owned by the party undersigned are made during the mandatory holding period.

4. The party undersigned will promise to faithfully respond to the request of the Exchange to confirm the fact in cases where the party undersigned, as the persons subject to mandatory holding of stocks, etc. violates relevant regulations by presale contract, etc., and not to raise any objection to any measures to be taken by the Exchange.

[Annex Form No.35] Comfort Letter of External Auditor

Comfort Letter of External Auditor

(Pertaining to [§64] and [Annex No. 1] of the Enforcement Rules)

To Listing Applicant,

Date: mm/dd/yyyy

xxxx Accounting Corporation (hereinafter “the Auditor”) has audited (reviewed) the financial statements of Co., Ltd (hereinafter “the Company”) for the year that ended on December 31, 20XX and June 30, 20XX and confirm following matters in relation to the application for preliminary listing review of foreign stocks and/or DRs to be filed on [date] by the Company.

1. The Auditor maintains independence from the Company according to accounting audit standards of OOOO in relation to the accounting audit on the financial statements of the Company.
2. The Auditor, for the preparation of this letter, has implemented each of the confirmation procedure as requested by the Company only for the financial information items as attached and requested by the Company among the content included in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs. The Auditor has not implemented any additional confirmation procedure for items that are not enumerated in the attachment.
 - (1) The Auditor has compared the amounts and explanations in the items that are included in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs with the concerned amount and descriptions in the audit (review) report on the financial statements of 20xx, and verified that they correspond with each other.
 - (2) The Auditor has recalculated the ratios and sums that are included in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs and verified the accuracy of the calculations.
 - (3) The Auditor has compared the amounts and explanations in the items that are included in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs with the concerned explanations in the audit (review) report on the financial statements of 20xx, and verified that the former explanations do not include matters that are different from the descriptions or amounts in the audit (review) report.
 - (4) The Auditor has compared the amounts in the items that are included in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs with the concerned amount in the accounts closing report and verified that they correspond with each other.

- (5) In cases where an amount that is not included in the audit (review) report and the Company's accounts closing report but included in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs, the Auditor has compared the amount with the Company's internal documents such as accounting records or analysis data that the Company turned in and verified that they correspond with each other. For the accuracy and validity of the internal documents such as the analysis data provided by the Company, no review was made.

The sufficiency of the verification procedure implemented by the Auditor is under the responsibility of the Company, the recipient of this letter. The Auditor expresses no opinion on whether or not the verification procedure falls under the purpose intended by the recipient, and in addition, as the verification procedure implemented by the Auditor is not the procedure according to the OOOO accounting audit standards (local country's accounting audit standards, etc.), opinion thereon is not expressed.

3. For the preparation of this letter, the Auditor implemented procedures, during the period of from [date] to [date] (hereinafter "subsequent period") that the recipient deemed necessary and requested and the requested procedures and results are as follows:

- (1) The Auditor examined the minutes of general shareholders meeting and board of directors meeting during the subsequent period. And the Company's personnel in charge of the minutes stated that all the minutes said above are turned in without any omission. The content of the general shareholders meeting and board of directors meeting are as follows:

< Excerpt of BOD minutes dated [date] >

- Resolution: approved OOOO

- (2) The Company's personnel in charge stated that the statement of financial positions or income statement as of a date or during a period of after [date] was not prepared. The Auditor, in relation to this, has not implemented any review procedures during the period of from [date] to [date].

- (3) The Auditor has made inquiries to the Company's personnel in charge about following material facts, etc. and, in relation to the material facts, verified major subsidiary books, chits, etc. turned in by the recipient as per the subsequent period.

- Dishonor of a note or a check issued
- Suspension of business operation
- Occurrence of a disaster or a major loss
- Selling of a large amount of fixed asset
- Filing of a lawsuit or occurrence of a dispute
- Change of officers
- Merger, split-off or merger after split-off (including physical split-off or merger after physical split-off), transfer or acquisition of business, resolution of major asset lease or management entrustment, etc.

- Issuance of shares or bonds
- Borrowing of a large amount or borrowing from overseas
- Change of important accounting estimation
- Occurrence of contingent liabilities or pre-arranged events
- Occurrence of abnormal error corrections in previous period
- Important changes in share ownership, long-term debt, operating capital, etc.
- In cases of a holdings company, above matters on major subsidiaries
- Other matters that are deemed important

To the inquiries by the Auditor about the matters above, the Company's personnel in charge stated that the matters above have not occurred during the subsequent period.

< Matters stated >

As the above procedure has not been executed according to the accounting audit standards, opinion thereon is not expressed and opinion whether the procedure falls under the purpose of the procedure, intended by the recipient of this letter, is not expressed. If the Auditor had implemented additional procedures or accounting audit or review, other matters to be reported to the recipient might have been found.

4. The responsibility of the description in the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs and of determination and verification of disclosure scope, etc. remains with the Company, the recipient of this letter. The Auditor's responsibility is to implement verification procedures on the requested matters and issue this letter. In addition, issuance of this letter does not replace or exempt the recipient's responsibility for the content of the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs and for determination and verification of disclosure scope, etc.
5. As this letter is for the recipient's information purpose only in relation to the application for preliminary listing review for foreign stocks/DRs for the listing on the KRX, perusal or use for other purposes are not allowed.
6. This letter was prepared for the purpose of use within Korea in connection with the listing of the Company on the KRX. Accordingly, use in any area other than Korea is not allowed.
