Enforcement Rules of Regulations on Operating the New-Type Securities Market

Chapter I. General Provisions

§1. Purpose

The purpose of this Regulation is to stipulate matters delegated by the Regulations on Operating the New-Type Securities Market and other matters necessary for its enforcement.

§2. Definitions

The terms used in this Regulation shall be defined as follows:

1. "Certificate of Registration of Issuance" refers to the Certificate of Registration of Issuance issued by the Korea Securities Depository;
2. "Issues with the base price set at the opening price" refers to an issue that uses the initial price determined in accordance with [§31(1)] of the "Regulations on Operating the New-Type Securities Market " (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations") as the base price on that day within the range of the lowest and highest quotation prices under Appendix 1, and is classified as follows:
 - (a) Newly listed issues with no initial public offering or secondary offering within the past six (6) months from the listing date;
 - (b) Issues that resume trading after trading has been halted or suspended for thirty (30) consecutive trading days or more; or
 - (c) Issues for which the Korea Exchange (hereinafter referred to as the "Exchange") recognizes that the adjustment of base price is necessary due to the fact that transactions are not continuously executed despite the existence of an upper limit price (hereinafter referred to as the "upper limit price") noted in the former part of paragraph (1) of [§28] of the Regulations or a lower limit price (hereinafter referred to as the "lower limit price") noted in the former part of the same paragraph.

Chapter II. Listing of New-Type Securities

§3. Procedures of Listing Review, etc.

(1) Pursuant to [§5(2)] of the Regulations, when the Exchange concludes the preliminary listing review or the listing review for new-type securities, it shall notify the listing applicant of the result of approval or disapproval in writing. In this case, if there is any information required to be included in the securities registration statement, etc. pursuant to [§4(8)] of the Regulations, such information shall be included, and if the notification of disapproval is notified, the reasons for the disapproval shall be included.

(2) Pursuant to [§5(2)] of the Regulations, the application of review requirements for new-type securities shall follow the guidelines for listing review of new-type securities under Appendix 2.

§4. Methods of Listing Review

Pursuant to [§5(2)] of the Regulations, the Exchange shall conduct listing reviews for new-type securities in accordance with the following methods:

1. The Exchange shall conduct preliminary listing review or listing review based on the listing application, accompanying documents, and opinions submitted by the listing applicant, etc.;
2. If a new type security intends to acquire specific assets or rights after the preliminary listing review, the Exchange shall receive documents confirming such acquisition from the listing applicant before the date of initial listing application;
3. If the Exchange deems it necessary for the preliminary listing review or listing review, it may request the submission of additional information and opinions (including opinions from external experts such as lawyers and certified public accountants) from the listing applicant;
4. Requests for additional information and opinions from the listing applicant pursuant to subparagraph 3 shall be made by telephone, in writing, or via email. In such cases, the contents of the request shall be kept to a minimum level to the extent that it does not interfere with the business operations of the listing applicant, etc.;
5. If the Exchange deems it necessary for the preliminary listing review or listing review, it may request an interview with the listing applicant, etc. In such cases, the latter part of Paragraph 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the method of requesting an interview;
6. If the Exchange deems it necessary for the preliminary listing review or listing review, it may seek advice from experts in the relevant business fields regarding the feasibility of the project, etc.;
7. If the applicant for preliminary listing review improves or supplements any matters related to the listing requirements after submitting the application for preliminary listing review, the Exchange shall consider such improvements and supplementary measures when conducting the preliminary listing review;
8. The Exchange may require the applicant for preliminary listing review to include in the securities registration statement, etc. any improvements or supplementary measures made pursuant to subparagraph 7 as well as any other information related to the review that it deems necessary to disclose for the public interest and investor protection.

§5. Listing Agreement

“Listing agreement prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in the latter part of [§5(3)] of the Regulations shall refer to the listing agreement in Appendix Form No. 1.

§6. Documents for Delisting Application and Criteria for Deliberation

“Delisting application form and the accompanying documents prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in the latter part of [§5(4)] of the Regulations shall refer to the application for delisting in Appendix Form No. 2 and documents that the Exchange deems necessary in relation to the delisting.

§7. Contract for Appointment of Designated Advisor, etc.

(1) “Matters stipulated in the Enforcement Rules” in the latter part of [§6(3)] of the Regulations shall refer to those in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Matters concerning the pledge to comply with financial laws and regulations and the Exchange's business regulations between the relevant corporation and the designated advisor;
2. Matters concerning the officer in charge of the task, employees in charge of the task, the scope of task, and contact procedures and methods between the relevant corporation and the designated advisor;
3. Matters concerning the confidentiality of the information received from the other party and the prohibition of inappropriate use;
4. Matters concerning the rights and obligations of the relevant corporation and the designated advisor;
5. Matters concerning the notification of changes in the business and organization of the relevant corporation and the designated advisor;
6. Matters concerning the fees paid in return for the performance of the designated advisor's duties;
7. Matters concerning the termination of the designated advisor appointment contract; and
8. Other matters that the Exchange deems necessary.

(2) Pursuant to [§6(6)] of the Regulations, applicants for initial listing of investment contract securities (including listed corporations) shall enter into a designated advisor appointment agreement with one (1) designated advisor.

§8. Measures Against Designated Advisors

(1) The suspension period for a designated advisor pursuant to the latter part other than each subparagraph of Article 8, Paragraph 1 of the Regulations shall not exceed six (6) months.

(2) Where multiple instances fall under each subparagraph of [§8(1)] of the Regulations, the Exchange may combine each suspension period of a designated advisor and take action. In such cases, the combined suspension period shall not exceed one (1) year.

§9. Documents for Application for Preliminary Listing Review, etc.

(1) “Application for preliminary listing review and accompanying documents prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in [§9(1)] of the Regulations shall refer to the application for preliminary listing review and accompanying documents under Appendix 3.

(2) “Documents prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in [§9(7)] of the Regulations shall refer to the documents in each of the following subparagraph:

1. When a report has been filed for an initial public offering or secondary offering: The reporting documents thereon;
2. When a material fact concerning the management of the listing applicant has arisen: The report thereon;
3. When forty-five (45) days have passed since the end of the first half of the relevant fiscal year of an applicant for initial listing: The semi-annual financial statements and the auditor's review report thereon; and
4. Any other documents deemed necessary and requested by the Exchange.

§10. Mandatory Holdings

(1) “The quantity prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in [§10(2)] of the Regulations shall refer to the smaller of 5/100 or more of the total number of listed securities for each newly listed issue or the quantity equivalent to KRW 1 billion or more (hereinafter referred to as the “mandatory holding quantity”). Provided that, where the mandatory holding quantity is prescribed by the relevant laws and regulations, that quantity shall apply.

(2) Documents required for mandatory holding under [§10(3)] of the Regulations and the submission deadline shall be as prescribed in Appendix 4.

§11. Documents for Application for Initial Listing

“Application for initial listing and accompanying documents prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” of [§11(1)] of the Regulations shall refer to the application for initial listing and accompanying documents under Appendix 5. Provided that if the applicant for initial listing has already submitted documents to the Exchange in relation to the listing of new-type securities and there are no changes to them, the submission of the relevant accompanying documents may be omitted.

§12. Documents for Application for Supplementary Listing

“Application for supplementary listing and accompanying documents prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” of [§12(1)] of the Regulations shall refer to the application for supplementary listing and accompanying documents under Appendix 6. In this case, the proviso to [§11] shall apply mutandis mutatis.

§13. Documents for Application for Listing Change

“Application for listing change and accompanying documents prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” of [§13(1)] of the Regulations shall refer to the application for listing change and accompanying documents under Appendix 7.

§14. Designation of Administrative Issues

Pursuant to [§14(3)] of the Regulations, the timing of designation as, and removal from, administrative issues shall be as stipulated in Appendix 8.

§15. Period of Trading Suspension, etc.

(1) Pursuant to [§17(3)] of the Regulations, the period of trading suspension shall be as specified in each of the following subparagraphs. In this case, the relevant suspension period shall be based on the trading day:

1. Cases falling under any of the subparagraphs of [§17(1) (excluding subparagraph 3)] of the Regulations: From the date the reason for trading suspension occurred until the date such reason was confirmed to have been resolved; and
2. Cases falling under [§17(1)3] of the Regulations: From the date of the request for explanation until the date of the public announcement of a response to the request for explanation.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Exchange may extend the period of trading suspension where any of the following subparagraphs applies:

1. If the rumor or news remains unresolved even after the disclosure of explanation has been made pursuant to paragraph 1(2);
2. If the content of the disclosure of explanation made pursuant to paragraph 1(2) falls under any of the reasons for delisting specified in each subparagraph of [§15(1)] of the Regulations; or

3. If the Exchange recognizes that an extension of the suspension period is necessary due to a potential material impact on the price and trading volume of securities issued by the listed corporation.
- (3) Where the period for trading suspension pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) has ended, the Exchange shall resume the trading of new-type securities.

Chapter III. Reporting and Disclosure

§16. Qualifications for Designated Advisors

“Qualifications specified in the Enforcement Rules” of [§20(2)] of the Regulations shall refer to a person who satisfies all of the following requirements:

Chapter IV. Market Operation, Trading, Clearing and Settlement, etc.

§19. Base Price

(1) “Base price determined by the Enforcement Rules” in [§28(1)] of the Regulation shall refer to the price in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. Newly listed issues with a record of a public offering or secondary distribution within the six (6) months preceding the listing date: Issuing price at the time of the IPO or secondary distribution;

2. Issues with the base price set at the opening price: The price initially determined in accordance with [§31(1)] of the Regulations. In this case, if the initial trading price is not determined by the end of the trading day, the price specified in each of the following subparagraphs shall be the base price for the next trading day:

(a) Where there are offer quotations lower than the appraisal price noted in subparagraph 2 of Appendix 1 (if there is no appraisal price, the lowest offer price is considered the appraisal price; hereinafter referred to as the “appraisal price” in this Article and [§23]): The price of the lowest offer quotation;

(b) Where there are bid quotations higher than the appraisal price: The price of the highest bid quotation; or

(c) For other cases: The appraisal price

3. Issues other than those in subparagraphs 1 and 2: Closing price of the previous day (Where there is no closing price of the previous day, the base price of the previous day shall be used; the same hereinafter)

(2) Where the price noted in [§1(1)] (anything less than KRW 1 shall be disregarded) is less than the quotation price unit, it shall be rounded up to the quotation price unit.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the base price may be determined differently in any of the following cases:

1. Where trading resumes for the first time after a long market closure; or
2. Where it is deemed significantly difficult to apply the prices pursuant to the subparagraphs of paragraph (1) due to reasons such as a long-term trading suspension, significant changes in rights, or sudden changes in market conditions.

§20. Price Change Limits

(1) Pursuant to the latter part of [§28(1)] of the Regulations, if the price calculated by adding the price limit to the base price does not match the quotation price unit, the price closest to that price among the prices that are lower than that price and match the quotation price unit shall be set as the upper price limit; and if the base price is the lowest price among the quotation price units, that price shall be set as the lower price limit.

(2) “Cases prescribed by the Enforcement Rules” in [§28(3)] of the Regulation shall refer to any of the following subparagraphs:

1. Where trading resumes for the first time after a long market closure; or
2. Where it is deemed significantly difficult to apply the base price noted in [§28(2)] of the Regulations due to reasons such as sudden changes in market conditions.

§21. Quotation Quantity Units and Trading Quantity Units

(1) Pursuant to [§29] of the Regulations, quotation quantity unit and trading quantity unit shall be as follows:

1. Non-monetary trust beneficiary certificates: 1 unit; and
2. Investment contract securities: 1 share.

(2) With regard to the adjustment of trading quantity units, etc., [§33(3) and (5)] of the Enforcement Rules of the KOSPI Market Business Regulations” (hereinafter referred to as the “Enforcement Rules of the Business Regulations”) shall apply.

§22. Scope of Quotations Participating in Call Auction

Pursuant to the latter part of [§30(2)] of the Regulations, the scope of quotations to be included in a call auction shall be the quotations received during each of the hours specified in the following subparagraphs and the quotations received during the time which the Exchange randomly determines within thirty (30) seconds since then, and shall include the quotations received earlier but not yet executed, if there are any:

1. In the case of price determination for trades resumed pursuant to [§15(3)]; The hours specified in [§35(1)2] of the Business Regulations; and
2. In the case of determination of provisional price pursuant to the part other than each subparagraph of [§30(4)] of the Regulations: The hours specified in [§35(1)4] of the Enforcement Rules of the Business Regulations.

§23. Base Price Used for Determination of Price at Call Auction

“Price determined by the Enforcement Rules” in the latter part of [§30(3)] of the Regulations shall refer to the price in each of the following subparagraphs:

1. In the case of determining the initial trading price of the issues with the base price set at the opening price: If there is a price equal to the appraisal price, such appraisal price; and if there is no price equal to the appraisal price, the price closest to such appraisal price; or
2. In the case of determining the initial trading price of issues falling under [§19(1)1]: If there is a price equal to the base price, such base price; and if there is no price equal to the base price, the price closest to the base price.

§24. Change of Trade Execution Methods, etc. by Issue

(1) “Rate specified in the Enforcement Rules” in [§30(4)1] of the Regulations shall be 3%. Provided that it shall be 2% for the quotation receiving hours for the determination of closing prices.

(2) “Rate specified in the Enforcement Rules” in [§30(4)2] of the Regulations shall be 10%.

(3) The change of trade execution methods, etc. noted in [§30(4)] of the Regulations shall mean to take the measures falling under any of the following subparagraphs during the time specified in subparagraph [§35(1)4] of the Enforcement Rules of Business Regulations. In such cases, the relevant measures shall be implemented after applying the self-match prevention condition under [§13-2] of the Enforcement Rules of Business Regulations:

1. In the case of continuous trading: Conversion into call auction; or
2. In the case of call auction: Expansion of the participating quotation range.

(4) Notwithstanding [§30(4)] of the Regulations, where any of the following subparagraphs apply, no change in the trade execution methods, etc. shall be made:

1. Issues scheduled to be delisted;
2. Where a call auction is conducted upon the resumption of trading in accordance with [§23(1)2 and 3] or [§15(3)] of the Business Regulations prior to the market close on the relevant day;
3. Where, after the trade execution methods, etc. of an issue is changed as it falls under paragraphs (1) and (2), the initial price determined in accordance with [§30(1)] of the Regulations falls under paragraphs (1) and (2) again;
4. Where a provisional execution price based on quotations is determined within the three (3) quotation units on the basis of the latest price (limited to cases where the price is less than KRW 1,000) as of the time when the relevant quotation is received;
5. Other cases that are deemed necessary by the Exchange in consideration of market conditions, etc.

(5) Pursuant to [§30(5)] of the Regulations, the Exchange may set the rate under paragraph (1) or (2) differently in cases where it is deemed significantly difficult to apply them in consideration of quotations and market conditions, etc.

§25. Method to Determine the Initial Trading Price for Newly Listed Issues, etc.

(1) “Issues specified in the Enforcement Rules” in [§31(1)] of the Regulations shall be issues with the base price set at the opening price.

(2) The range of quotations noted in [§31(2)] of the Regulations shall be the quotations received from the beginning of quotation receiving hours of the regular session to the market opening time and the time randomly set by the Exchange within thirty (30) seconds thereafter.

(3) The quotations noted in paragraph (2) shall be the quotations received within the following prices:

1. Issues with the base price set at the opening price (excluding issues scheduled to be delisted): The lowest quotation price and the highest quotation price pursuant to Appendix 1: or
2. Issues falling under [§19(1)1].

§26. Investor Notice

(1) “Person specified in the Enforcement Rules” in the proviso to [§33] of the Regulations shall refer to a collective investment vehicle established or set up in accordance with any of the laws falling under any of the subparagraphs of Article 6, Paragraph 1 of the Enforcement Decree of the Financial Investment Services and Capital Markets Act.

(2) Where a collective investment vehicle noted in paragraph (1) intends to open a trading account for trading in the market or participate in the market for the first time using an existing account, it shall submit documents proving its qualifications to members.

Chapter V. Supplementary Provisions

§27. Listing Fees and Annual Dues

Pursuant to [§34(2)] of the Regulations, the rates of listing fees and annual dues, the methods for calculation and payment, the scope of exemption, and other necessary matters shall be prescribed by the Enforcement Rules.

ADDENDA

(Regulation No. 2369 / October 23, 2025)

§1. Effective Date

These Enforcement Rules shall become effective from October 24, 2025. Provided that Chapter IV (Articles 19 through 26) shall be implemented from a date separately determined by the Exchange, taking into account the period required for computer program development, etc.

§2. Effective Date of Regulations on Operating the New-Type Securities Market

The “date specified in the Enforcement Rules” in [§1] of the Addenda of the Regulations on Operating the New-Type Securities Market, Regulation No. 2358, shall refer to October 24, 2025. Provided that Chapter IV (Articles 25 through 33) of the same Regulations shall become effective on a date separately determined by the Exchange, taking into account factors such as the time required for computer program development, etc.

[Appendix 1] Criteria for calculating the lowest and highest quotation prices to determine the initial trading price of issues with the base price set at the opening price

Criteria for calculating the lowest and highest quotation prices to determine the initial trading price of issues with the base price set at the opening price
(Pertaining to [§2], [§19], [§23] and [§25] of the Enforcement Rules)

1. Calculation Method

Unless otherwise determined by the Exchange, the lowest and highest quotation prices shall be calculated according to the following formula. In this case, if the calculated quotation price falls below the quotation price unit, it shall be rounded up to the quotation price unit.

Lowest and highest quotation prices = Appraisal price according to paragraph 2 x Applicable rate according to paragraph 3

2. Appraisal Price

The appraisal price for each issue shall be as follows. In this case, the latter part of paragraph 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

- (a) Newly listed issues with no record of a public offering or secondary distribution within the past six (6) months from the listing date: The price calculated by an appraisal agency recognized by the Exchange, such as a securities analysis agency under Article 2-5, Paragraph 1 of the Regulations on Issuance and Disclosure of Securities, etc., or, if there is a trading record in the OTC market before listing, the price calculated based on the trading price.
- (b) Issues that resume trading after trading has been halted or suspended for 30 trading days or more: The closing price on the last trading day. However, ex-rights occur before the resumption of trading, the price shall be calculated taking this into account.
- (c) Issues where the Exchange deems it necessary to adjust the base price, such as those where no trades are executed continuously despite the presence of quotations at the upper or lower price limit: The price of quotation at the upper or lower price limit.

3. Applicable Rate

The applicable rate shall be as follows:

- (a) Where calculating the lowest quotation price: 50%
- (b) Where calculating the highest quotation price: 200%

4. Where the appraisal prices or the lowest and highest quotation prices calculated according to subparagraphs 1 through 3 are deemed to be significantly unreasonable or difficult to apply, or where necessary due to a significant change in the rights of new-type securities, the Exchange may set them differently.

[Appendix 2] Guidelines for Listing Review of New-Type Securities

Guidelines for Listing Review of New-Type Securities

(Pertaining to [§3(2)] of the Enforcement Rules)

1. Purpose

The purpose of these Guidelines is to stipulate the detailed matters on the listing review necessary for the application of the review criteria to the listing of new-type securities, pursuant to the provisions of [§3(2)] of the Enforcement Rules.

2. Requirements for Listing Review

All of the following requirements shall be met from the day before the application date for preliminary listing review until the approval date for initial listing. Provided that, requirements that cannot be met by the application date for preliminary listing review (e.g., listing amount requirements, distribution requirements, etc.) shall be met by the date of initial listing.

(a) In relation to the issuance, listing, and reporting and disclosure of new-type securities, the following requirements for the eligibility of initial listing applicant must be met.

(i) The following disclosure competency criteria must be met:

- ① In order to ensure prompt and accurate reporting when matters subject to reporting regarding the listing applicant and listed issues arise, one (1) disclosure officer must be designated as a person who can participate in the decision-making process of the listing applicant (e.g., a person who can attend the board of directors meeting).
- ② In addition to the disclosure officer, at least one (1) disclosure manager must be designated to enable immediate reporting and disclosure through the disclosure submission system (Filing.krx.co.kr) when matters subject to reporting and disclosure arise.
- ③ In the case of a listing applicant who has difficulty in reporting and disclosing by itself, a disclosure agent must be appointed to handle reporting and disclosing on its behalf.
- ④ An internal reporting system and reporting standards must be established to ensure immediate reporting and disclosure when reporting and disclosure matters arise.
- ⑤ An internal control system related to reporting and disclosure must be in place to prevent acts such as the misuse of undisclosed important information.

- (ii) The executive officer of a listing applicant shall not be a person falling under any of the provisions of Article 5, Paragraph 1, Subparagraphs 5 through 7 of the Act on the Governance Structure of Financial Companies.
- (iii) It shall be recognized that a listing applicant has internal control standards (separation of business organization and reporting/decision-making system, prohibition of information exchange, etc.) to prevent conflicts of interest between the applicant's main business and other business activities.
- (iv) The following requirements shall be met in relation to the stability of management of the listing applicant, including whether there is a dispute.
 - Ⓐ No lawsuits or other actions that may cause a material impact on the financial structure or management of the listing applicant shall be filed, or even before the filing of lawsuits, no assets shall be subject to seizure or provisional attachment due to the granting of injunctions or other measures.
 - Ⓑ It shall be recognized that situations such as management rights disputes do not significantly impair the stability of corporate management.
 - Ⓒ Where a listing applicant has been subject to restrictions on the issuance of securities pursuant to the Capital Markets Act or other relevant laws, the period of the relevant sanction shall have elapsed.

(b) The following product suitability requirements shall be met in relation to matters such as the preparation of a list of beneficiaries and investors, maturity, early liquidation, etc.

- (i) Matters regarding the method of holding a general meeting of beneficiaries and investors and the preparation of a list of beneficiaries and investors (including the institution and method of preparation) shall be established.
- (ii) Standards and procedures for distributing residual assets to investors (security owners) in preparation for the arrival of maturity or early liquidation of securities shall be established.
- (iii) The purpose of the securities shall be continuously viable until the maturity of the new-type securities.
- (iv) There shall be a possibility of dividends and distribution of capital gains after selling the underlying assets.

(c) The following requirements of transparency and fairness of product shall be met in light of the product disclosure statement, etc.

- (i) The product disclosure statement shall include the following:

- Ⓐ Information on securities (security name, number of securities issued, maturity, etc.);

- ⓑ Business purpose (including information regarding the issuer/listing applicant);
- ⓒ Structure of business and/or product (matters related to trusts, matters related to bankruptcy remoteness, etc.). In this case, for investment contract securities, the Exchange shall focus its review on the legal contractual structure of insolvency protection, etc., in conjunction with the Financial Supervisory Service's review of the securities registration statement;
- ⓓ Structure of securities rights (profit distribution, rights exercise method, etc.). This includes the settlement and distribution method of profits and losses attributable to investors, such as rental income, capital gains, and copyright profits, etc.;
- ⓔ Acquisition/disposal plans for underlying assets or business rights;
- ⓕ Key decision-making methods and procedures regarding product operations;
- ⓖ Regular disclosure plan for product operation progress reports;
- ⓗ Maturity (lifespan) of securities;
- Ⓢ Reasons, methods, and procedures for early liquidation of securities (midterm full repurchase/repayment). In this case, the reason for delisting shall be the occurrence of early liquidation;
- Ⓤ Methods for settling and distributing residual assets following the arrival of maturity or early liquidation of securities;
- Ⓚ Methods of the valuation of securities (public offering price);
- Ⓛ Key investment indicators (indicators that affect securities price fluctuations, methods to check them, etc.) and investment risks;
- Ⓜ Plan to handle securities in case of undersubscription in public offering (matters to be included in the securities registration statement);
- Ⓝ The following major investment risks are described:
 - a) If the new-type securities market is terminated according to the expiration of the designated period for innovative financial services, resulting in the delisting of new-type securities, trading and liquidity of the relevant securities may be restricted;
 - b) If the reasons for delisting apply, the relevant securities may be delisted;

- c) The securities will be delisted upon meeting the early liquidation requirements or upon the arrival of maturity;
 - d) Partial redemption may be restricted in the event of the arrival of maturity or early liquidation.
- (ii) The following investor asset protection measures will be put in place:
- ① In the case of investment contract securities, a bankruptcy remoteness device that legally separates and preserves the rights of securities holders in preparation for the risk of insolvency, bankruptcy, or dissolution of the listing applicant (issuer) must be installed and stated in the securities registration statement, etc. (in the case of new business structure products, prior consultation with the Financial Supervisory Service is required);
 - ② In the event of falling under reasons for delisting, such as bankruptcy of the listing applicant (issuer), standards and procedures for voluntary delisting through early liquidation of listed shall be established.

In this case, the refund of the annual dues shall be made upon the receipt of notification of the reason for delisting and a request for a refund of the annual dues from the relevant listed company.
- (iii) In the case where a listed company that has paid annual dues extends the remaining redemption period, the annual dues during the extended remaining redemption period shall be paid in the same manner as in the case of an application for initial listing.
- (c) The Exchange may exempt the listing fees and annual dues if it deems necessary for the market management, etc.

[Appendix Form No. 1] Listing Agreement

Listing Agreement

Article 1. Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to stipulate the basic matters with which _____ (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) shall, upon listing its new-type securities (referring to investment contract securities or non-monetary trust beneficiary certificates; the same hereinafter) on the Korea Exchange (hereinafter referred to as the “Exchange”), comply as a company that listed new-type securities, for the sake of formation of fair and stable price, efficient trading of securities and protection of investors, etc. in the new-type securities market of the Exchange.

Article 2. Observance of laws and regulations

The Company shall observe faithfully following laws and regulations, which are currently enforced, may be established and amended from time to time in the future:

1. Financial Investment Services and Capital Markets Act, Enforcement Decree and Enforcement Rules of the same Act, and other governing laws and regulations;
2. Regulations on Operating the New-Type Securities Market and Enforcement Rules of the same Regulations;
3. Other matters concerning listed corporations such as standards, guidelines and policies set forth by the Exchange.

Article 3. Cooperation with respect to inspection of abnormal transactions

In case where the Exchange deems necessary with respect to the inspection of abnormal transactions of listed securities, it may request the Company, in writing or via wired and/or wireless communications, to submit copies of materials related to the process of creation of material corporate information (minutes of the board of directors, contracts etc.) including the time of generation of the information, the list of executives and employees, the personal information on major insiders and the list of shareholders, etc.

Article 4. Establishment of a dedicated system for listing and disclosure affairs

To efficiently conduct listing and disclosure affairs, the Company shall establish a dedicated system for such affairs, including a disclosure manager and disclosure officer. In the event of any of the following occurrences, the Company shall immediately notify the Exchange to ensure that there are no disruptions to business performance:

1. Changes in the disclosure officer or disclosure manager (including designated advisors or disclosure agents);

2. Changes in the location of the head office or the office responsible for listing and disclosure affairs;
3. Changes in key contact information, including the website address and phone number;
4. Information regarding the long-term absence of the disclosure officer or disclosure manager due to overseas training, business trips, vacations, etc., and the replacement personnel;
5. Other information the Exchange needs to know to ensure the smooth execution of listing and disclosure affairs.

Article 5. Establishment and operation of listing and disclosure system

To efficiently conduct listing and disclosure affairs, the Company shall establish the listing and disclosure system that the Exchange provides and manage it, including by upgrading it to the latest version, so not to cause any impediments to the performance of the tasks.

Article 6. Measures

(1) The Exchange may request the Company for necessary matters, in writing or wired and/or wireless communications, such as submission of related materials or reports and interviews with persons involved, in cases where it deems necessary for the effective implementation of this agreement and in such cases, the Company shall reply immediately to the request as long as there are no special reasons acknowledged by the Exchange.

(2) In cases where the Company fails to faithfully perform the matters stipulated in this agreement, the Exchange may take necessary measures including requests for rectification, submission of improvement reports, request of a written pledge, education of the persons involved, etc., and if the Company changes the accounting standards adopted at the time of listing without the Exchange's approval and it is determined that this has a significant impact on the Company's transparent accounting, the Exchange may delist the Company.

Article 7. Renewal of agreement

Where, after having entered into this agreement, the Exchange deems it necessary to change the contents of the agreement, it shall notify the Company of the details of such change and if there is no objection filed by the Company within fifteen (15) days after the notification was made, it shall be deemed that the agreement is duly renewed.

Article 8. Agreement on jurisdiction

It shall be agreed upon that all disputes which may arise in relation to this agreement shall be finally settled by the court with the jurisdiction over KOSPI Market Division of the KRX.

Article 9. Mutual signature of agreement
